Formally Serve 23 Accused

Thirty Days for War Crimes Defendants to Prepare Defense

NUERNBERG, Oct. 19.—(P)—The world's first great war criminals trial of 24 high Nazis and German militarists and industrialists will begin in Nuernberg on Nov. 20, the international military tribunal announced today.

The date for the beginning of the proceedings to establish responsibility for the second World War and its cruelties was set by the tribunal shortly after the massive indictments presented to the court yesterday at its first sitting in Berlin had been served on 23 of the defendants here in the Nuernberg jail.

NUERNBERG, Germany, Oct. 19.—(P)—The most massive criminal indictment in history was served formally today on 23 Germans who must face a four-power international military tribunal in trials for their lives at Nuernberg next month.

The 24th defendant, Martin Bormann, apparently still is at large and probably will be tried in absentia.

The indictments were served on the defendants—politicians, militarists, industrialists and other functionaries in Hitler's Nazi regime—at 2:15 p. m. (7:15 a. m. central standard time.)

Maj. Anthony Neave, a British lawyer, gave copies of the 24,000 word accusation to the men in their carefully guarded cells. He explained to all exactly what their rights were.

Lt. Col. Richard Owen of New Haven, Conn., and two attorneys attached to United States forces in the European theater accompanied Neave to the cells.

Neave, in his military career, was captured by the Germans in the British retreat from Dunkerque. He escaped from a German prison camp in 1944.

The indictments were served on Hermann Goering, Rudolf Hess, Joachim von Ribbentrop, Robert Ley, Wilhelm Keitel, Ernst Kaltenbrunner, Alfred Rosenberg, Hans Frank, Wilhelm Frick, Julius Streicher, Walther Funk, Hjalmar Schacht, Gustav Krupp von Bohlen und Halbach, Karl Doenitz, Erich Raeder, Baldur von Schirach, Fritz Sauckel, Alfred Jodl, Franz van Papen, Arthur Seyss-Inquart, Albert Speer, Constantin von Neurath and Hans Fritzsche.

The formal indictment was presented yesterday in Berlin to the court which will try the greatest war crimes case in history. Judges and prosecutors of the United States, Russia, Great Britain and France participated.

Time To Prepare Defenses

The defendants have 30 days in which to prepare their defenses.

The survivors of Hitler's regime, which sought at the cost estimated at 10,000,000 lives to dominate the world, were charged individually and collectively with conspiring to wage war—a crime against humanity.

In addition to the individuals, the prosecution will attempt to establish the responsibility of seven Nazi organizations—the German general staff and the high command, the German cabinet, the leadership corps of the Nazi party, the SS or Elite Guard, the Gestapo, the Storm Troopers and the SD or Secret Service.

The indictment charges a common plan or conspiracy to overthrow the Treaty of Versailles, rearm Germany and to acquire territory for Germany by any means, including "force and aggressive war." The defendants are accused of crimes against peace and of planning and waging war against Poland, Britain, France, Denmark, Norway, Belgium, Holland, Luxembourg, Yugoslavia, Greece, Russia and the United States.

Moreover, the Nazis were accused of waging total war and "deliberate" attempts at extermination of racial and national groups. Mass murders were charged in Russia, Poland and the Balkans, where the indictment said 9,465,000 persons were killed. "Thousands" of others died by gunfire and executions elsewhere, the charge said.

The defendants also were accused of complicity in crimes against humanity in countries which the Nazis occupied, piracy on the high seas, and of murdering and persecuting any persons suspected of hostility to the Nazi party and its plan for expansion in Europe.

James A. Lamy Chinese Attack Dies at Home Early Today

Funeral Services Be Held at Sacred Heart on Monday

Three Killed and Others Beaten And Stoned

By Spencer Davis

James Augustus Lamy, 89 years old, died at the family home, 500 South Grand avenue, at about 5:00 o'clock this morning, following a long illness.

Mr. Lamy was born April 24, 1856 in Booneville, Mo., the oldest son of Ernest and Lucy Caroline Parsons Lamy.

He was educated at Kemper Military Academy, later came to Sedalia and established the J. A. Lamy Manufacturing company in 1893. He was married to Marie Elise Waddell on February 14, 1900. Of this union were born Rosalie Lamy Mulvihill, Chicago, Ill., Lucy Caroline Lamy, Religious of the Sacred Heart, Clayton, Mo., Elise Lamy Michel, St. Louis, Mo., James Pierre Lamy, Sedalia, and Captain John E. Lamy, Army of the United States.

Other Survivors
Surviving besides his widow and children are his sister, Mrs. Florence Lamy Chambers, four grandchildren, Celeste Noel Michel, Barbara Elise and Peter Augustus Lamy and Anthony Mulvihill, two sons-in-law, Major Francis X. Mulvihill and Charles E. Michel, Jr., and two daughters-in-law, Eileen O'Sullivan Lamy and Mary Alice Messery Lamy.

Preceding him in death were two sisters, Ella Lamy Brown, Dora Lamy DeMuth and one brother, Ernest W. Lamy.

Funeral services will be held at 9:30 o'clock Monday morning at the Sacred Heart church.

The body will be taken from the McLaughlin funeral chapel to the family residence Saturday afternoon where the rosary will be recited at 8:15 o'clock Sunday evening.

Lashing for Knocking Out Wife's Teeth

UPPER MARLBORO, MD., Oct. 19.—(P)—A 175-pound gas company employee convicted of beating up his 96-pound wife was lashed ten times with a whip by the sheriff of Prince George county today.

A witness said the sheriff "did it very nice." Newsmen were barred from the jail.

The punishment was ordered by County Circuit Judge Charles C. Marbury after Lloyd O. Busching, 30, was found guilty of wife beating. He was accused of knocking out two of his wife's teeth in a quarrel at their Dillon Park, Md., home after a beer party.

Twenty witnesses, including the foreman of the jury which convicted Busching, saw the lashing. Sheriff R. Earle Sheriff said Busching was stripped in front of the witnesses, and then handcuffed. Busching stood straight up, put his hands on the bars in front of him, and was whipped across the buttocks.

Asked by a reporter how hard he hit Busching, the Sheriff replied: "He was hit!"

No skin was broken, although large welts were raised, he asserted.

Committee is For Tax Relief

Benefits Approved For Business and The Railroads

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—(P)—The senate finance committee voted today to forgive all federal income taxes during war years on the service pay of enlisted personnel in the armed forces.

Veterans below the grade of commissioned officers won't even have to file returns on their service income if congress finally approves the provision.

The committee, driving to complete a $4,780,000,000 tax cutting bill before nightfall, voted two other benefits for veterans and a like number for corporations.

Other Provisions

The other provisions affecting veterans were:

1. Officers would be granted an additional three-year extension of the time in which they could pay the tax on their service pay, without interest charges, provided they paid off in twelve quarterly installments. Under the present law, they have only six months from the time they return to this country to work out a payment plan with the collector.

2. Men who entered the service before the pay-as-you-go tax law went into effect would be granted a similar three-year extension for payment of their tax liability on earned income (not in excess of $14,000 earned in civilian life for years prior to 1942).

Business Benefits

The benefits approved for business were:

1. A one-year extension, from Dec. 31, 1945 of the period in which corporations may retire their own bonds at less than face value without recognition of gain.

2. A similar extension of the period in which railroads, which have been through reorganization proceedings, may cancel out indebtedness without recognition of gain.

Details of the enlisted men's service pay forgiveness remained to be worked out. The dates probably will extend from passage of the draft act until the official end of the war. Those who have paid the tax will be entitled to refunds. The revenue loss was described as very slight, because servicemen already get an extra $1,500 tax exemption above that allowed civilians.

In its morning session, the committee took no further action on reduction of excise taxes on such articles as baby powder, gin, silver fox scarfs and lipstick. Prospect for their comeback to pre-war levels next July 1 as voted by the house, seemed very dim.

Meat Points May be Lower

Reduction on Butter With Price Advance

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—(P)—Agriculture Secretary Anderson said today meat rationing will be continued in November although point values may be lowered.

His announcement at a news conference followed disclosure that ration points for butter also may be cut next month, even though costs may go up.

Anderson said the decision to continue meat rationing stemmed largely from commitments made to supply meat to foreign countries. Rationing, he said, will make it easier to obtain supplies for overseas shipments.

Many lower grade meats and some choice cuts already have been eliminated from the ration list.

Anderson also told reporters he still hopes that food subsidies can be ended by next July 1.

The first step in that direction came with the cancellation of a government subsidy to butter processors, with a resulting prospect of 5 to 6 cents a pound in retail prices effective Nov. 8. (Wholesalers will be permitted to increase their prices Nov. 1.)

On the other hand, there is a good possibility that the current butter ration value of 12 points a pound may be cut to eight, effective October 25.

One reason, said food officials who asked anonymity, is the recent release by the army of 30,000,000 pounds of butter.

At the same time there was an indication that the better cuts of meat will continue to be rationed in November: OPA already is printing meat point charts for next month.

Men Fixing Senatorial Districts

JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 19.—(P)—These are the men who gave Missouri State senatorial districts their first overhauling since 1901.

Democrats:

James E. Sater, Mohett lawyer and former constitutional delegate who was co-chairman of the commission; Ellis G. Cook, Maryville lawyer; E. E. Fogle, Lancaster attorney and a constitutional convention delegate; H. P. Lauf, Jefferson City lawyer and former legislator and Yewell Lawrence, Bloomfield newspaper publisher, banker and Stoddard county clerk.

Republicans:

George Rozier, Perryville attorney, former chairman of the state's unemployment compensation commission and co-chairman of the redistricting commission; John H. Wolpers, Poplar Bluff newspaper publisher and university curator; Hillis R. Leslie, former banker from Memphis, Mo.; John T. Garner, Carrollton banker, and Gordon Pilkington, St. Louis county broker.

Ask Dismissal Of Ward Petition

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—(P)—The justice department asked the supreme court today to dismiss a Montgomery Ward petition seeking a ruling on validity of the government's seizure of Ward properties in seven cities.

The department in a memorandum said the army's return of the properties to the Ward company last night eliminated the basis for any supreme court action at this time. The army seized the properties under an order by the late President Roosevelt issued December 17, 1944.

Ward's had appealed to the supreme court from a decision by the U. S. circuit court at Chicago that the war labor disputes act gave the president authority for the order.

In asking dismissal of the appeal, the justice department said a suggestion might be made that a decision on the validity of the seizure would "to some extent clarify problems of remedy with respect to compensation and accounting between Ward's and the government. Insofar as such questions may be dependent upon the lawfulness of the government's position."

Fresh Defiance

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—(P)—Fresh defiance of war labor board directives came from Montgomery Ward and Company today as it regained from the army control of properties which were seized in seven cities by the government more than nine months ago after a prolonged dispute with a CIO union.

As the army yesterday prepared to relinquish its control of the huge mail order house, effective at 10:59 p. m. (CST) on Thursday, Sewell L. Avery, board chairman and central figure in the controversy with the union and the government, announced abolishment of compulsory maintenance of union membership and checkoff of union dues.

Task to Carry Out Declaration

TOKYO, Oct. 19.—(P)—Japan's chief task is to carry out terms of the Potsdam conference as smoothly and as rapidly as possible. Foreign Minister Shigeru Yoshida said today, "to demonstrate our good faith through deeds."

Yoshida, veteran Japanese statesman who once was mentioned prominently as a possible successor to resigned Premier Prince Higashi-Kuni, told his first foreign press conference he had no plans for the foreign ministry.

"Japan at the present moment is a defeated nation and has no diplomacy," he said. "Our chief task is to carry out terms of the Potsdam declaration smoothly and rapidly as possible."

Yoshida asserted he believed the present constitution was democratic, but that "revision is regarded as necessary" because the instrument had been "misused by militarists" and action was necessary "to prevent its possible misuse by other elements in the future."

He defended the Zaibatsu, wealth-controlling industrial families of Japan whose holding companies recently announced plans to offer shares of stock for sale to the public as the people who brought "prosperity" to Japan in peace time.

Campaign to Conserve Soil

Missouri Pacific Announces it At Conference

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 19.—(P)—A comprehensive soil conservation campaign in the territory it serves was announced yesterday by the Missouri Pacific railroad as the National Conference of friends of the Land, a conservation organization, opened a two-day meeting.

The railroad's program, to take the form of a widespread campaign to interest farmers, industrialists and business men in formation of conservation districts, was announced by President L. W. Baldwin. Booklets to be distributed throughout the territory were handed out at the Friends of the Land meeting.

"Everyone has a stake in the land," Baldwin declared in a foreword to the booklet. "Everyone should consider himself a steward of the land. Directly or indirectly all of us look to the land for food, clothing or shelter. More than that, we must hold the soil in trust for generations to come—for the future of America."

Directing the railroad's program is John T. Stinson, director of agricultural development. The campaign will be conducted through the agents and local representatives of the company's large southwestern system.

Speaks At Dinner

Louis Bromfield, novelist-farmer, told a friend of the Land dinner last night that America paid a tremendous price in real wealth in winning World War II. By real wealth, he said he meant, not money, but such things as trees, earth, health, the ability to create and to work.

"During the war our soil was overworked in accelerated production, mineral ores and oil were used at a great rate and forests were cut five times as fast as they could be replaced," he said.

"A sick agriculture is reflected immediately in business," he added. "Labor would have us believe prosperity starts with the paycheck. But where does the paycheck come from ultimately? Without the farmer or a sound agriculture, everyone else would be in a bad way. High living costs do not necessarily mean a high standard of living and one reason for a high cost of living is poor farming."

"People who are hungry can't think about peace" R. H. Musser of the United States Soil Conservation Service at Milwaukee, Wis., told another session of the conference. "They are more likely to want to fight for more land and more food."

Timely Rules For Hunters

JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 19.—(P)—With duck and squirrel hunting seasons already open and quail and deer hunters soon to take to the fields and woods, the Missouri Conservation Commission asked sportsmen today to guard against shooting accidents.

Here are the sportsman's ten commandments of hunting safety:

1. Treat every gun with the respect due a loaded gun.
2. Carry only empty guns, taken down or with the action open, into your automobile, camp or home.
3. Always be sure the barrel and action are clear of obstructions.
4. Always carry your gun so that you can control the direction of the muzzle, even if you stumble.
5. Be sure of your target before you pull the trigger.
6. Never point a gun at anything you do not want to shoot.
7. Never leave your gun unattended unless you unload it first.
8. Never climb a tree or a fence with a loaded gun.
9. Never shoot at a flat, hard surface or the surface of water.
10. Do not mix gunpowder and alcohol.

U. S. Embassy Officer Fired On In Outbreak By Rebels In Venezuela

Hospitals be Heavily Taxed

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—(P)—Gen. Omar N. Bradley, veterans' administrator, left early today by airplane for Chicago after a brief conference with 18 directors of western veterans' hospitals during which Bradley predicted the facilities would be taxed with a peak load of 200,000 to 250,000 by 1965.

The administrator told newsmen this compared with 61,000 hospitalized 20 years after World War I.

He estimated 83,000 veterans are in administration hospitals now.

His national tour has shown, he said, that everywhere the administration has a shortage of hospital space, personnel and beds.

Only a big building program and an intensive recruiting of physicians and nurses will solve the growing problem, he declared.

Bradley will address the disabled American veterans convention in Chicago on Saturday.

President Talks On Wages-Prices

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—(P)—President Truman discussed wage and price policies with his cabinet today, but there was no immediate announcement on the results.

Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said that a statement on policy and new machinery to deal with labor disputes probably will be deferred until Monday.

President Truman told his news conference yesterday that he would have a statement to make after the cabinet meeting. He did not specifically say that it would be made today.

Ross said the scope of the president's statement would depend upon the cabinet's discussion.

Present administration policy is to allow wage increases only to correct any inequalities and where no compensatory price increases result. Administration spokesmen, however, have leaned recently toward more liberal wage policy while holding the line against price spirals.

Ross also told reporters the president is not ready yet to announce his selection for chairman of the labor-industry conference convening here November 5.

Orders 'Kill as Many as Possible'

By Duane Hennessy

TOKYO, Oct. 19.—(P)—Written Japanese army and navy orders that called for the killing of Allied prisoners of war on the slightest provocation were captured in combat and are held in files at General MacArthur's headquarters, it was learned today.

These orders made such an impression on the troops that one member of the Japanese 33rd infantry regiment reminded himself in his diary, now in MacArthur's files.

"Kill as many prisoners as possible. If the situation allows, make them work."

In June, 1943, the commander of the first platoon of the No. 2 Sasebo detachment ordered:

"Should any doubt arise in connection with the treatment of prisoners, those who display hostile feeling should be disposed of vigorously and without mercy."

The commander of the No. 50 Sasebo detachment, of which units are known to have killed an Australian flier and seven Australian civilians, issued this order for the humiliation of prisoners:

"Natives have a strong sense of hero worship. Making white people work before their eyes and other similar steps might produce good results."

Conflict in the Upheaval Began At Caracas Late On Thursday

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—(P)

Private reports received by Venezuelan residents here today said rebel forces using tanks had captured the cities of Maracaibo and Caracas, the capital.

These reports said President Medina, who had been reported heading the government forces, surrendered to the revolutionaries, and that former President Lopez, a candidate for the presidency in the present campaign, also was surrendering to the rebels.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—(P)—A U. S. embassy officer at Caracas was fired on last night in the course of spreading revolution in Venezuela.

The conflict is between rebel military and government forces.

The incident involving the embassy official was disclosed by the state department today in making public dispatches from Ambassador Frank P. Corrigan on the revolt.

The upheaval, according to these official reports, began at 4 p. m. yesterday at San Carlos barracks near Caracas and by 9 p. m. last night the rebels had control of the president's residence at Miraflores and the nearby military academy.

They had set up headquarters in the academy.

Meanwhile government forces under the leadership of President General Isiah Medina Y Angarita, who has taken personal command, have captured the San Carlos barracks.

Heavy firing today morning shortly after midnight, according to a dispatch which indicated that the shooting took place at Caracas.

At the town of Maracay, 50 miles west of the capital, it was reported that there was heavy fighting and that the rebels had some motorized equipment at their disposal.

The government forces claimed to control Maracay air field.

The state department's cables from Ambassador Corrigan were, at least in some instances, timed at 9 p. m. yesterday, Venezuelan time, but were not filed until daybreak today.

Inquiry disclosed that cable communication between the embassy at Caracas and the state department was interrupted during the night.

Forced to Turn Back
The state department said that an American officer of the embassy was on his way from the embassy to the cable office when he was fired upon near the Plaza Bolivar.

He was forced to turn back and that resulted in the delay in Corrigan's dispatches to Washington.

There was no authoritative word on the issues involved.

Venezuelan sources here speculated that lower rank army officers perhaps were displeased with the two presidential candidates for the presidency and may have revolted to take over the government.

They said the fact that Alfonso Biaggiani, a civilian, has been nominated for the presidency may have had something to do with the army's desire to revolt. This is the first time in Venezuelan constitutional history that a civilian has received the nomination.

The Venezuelan congress is scheduled to meet on April 19 to set the date for the presidential elections.

New York to B. A.—A Weekend Hop

Dramatic example of how travel will be speeded up in the near future is shown on map above. Institution of air passenger service to South America has consistently reduced the travel time until, according to plans for postwar schedules, the trip will soon be condensed to a weekend jaunt.

Wildcats are Ready for Tigers

MANHATTAN, Kas., Oct. 19.—
(P)—Coach Lud Fiser's Kansas State Wildcats stood ready and willing—and perhaps able—for their conference tilt with the Missouri Tigers at Columbia Saturday, after a "dress rehearsal" here late yesterday.

Fiser watched his gridsters pass,
run and tackle in a long drill,
then named a starting lineup, and finally permitted a look of optimism to sweep across his countenance.

Reason for the hopeful look was the improved tackling these Wildcat footballers displayed here on the practice field yesterday. Earlier in the week, Fiser had stated that weakness in that department had cost the K-Staters plenty in last Saturday's engagement with Marquette at Milwaukee. With many of the "bugs" eliminated, Fiser predicted a smoother running team will be in action at Columbia Saturday.

Riser's probable backfield starters for the Missouri game reads as follows: Ted Grimes at left half, Ervin Pattee, right half; Ray Stevens, quarter and Dick Harris, at full.

Harris filled the Milwaukee air with passes last week and Fiser expects more of the same from the lad tomorrow.

Harvey Haas, veteran end, was named game captain, and two changes in the forward wall had navy veteran Loren Schroeder replacing ailing Dick Hood at center and Dale Cowan, 210-pound two year letterman, subbing at left tackle for freshman Ray Steinbach.

Sets Execution Date For Negro

JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 19.—(P)— Gov. Phil M. Donnelly Thursday set Nov. 16 for the execution of William Edward Talbert, St. Louis Negro sentenced to die in Missouri's lethal gas chamber but who was given a reprieve by the Governor three days ago to permit defense attorneys to offer additional arguments for commutation.

Donnelly said the new date was set as the definite time for Talbert's death if the additional evidence presented him does not necessitate further reprieve or commutation.

The state supreme court upheld Talbert's conviction last month for the death of a St. Louis county farmer, Martin Twillman, killed by four Negro youths who sought to take his truck from him. One of the four, Leo Lyles, died in the gas chamber last May for his part in the slaying.

The two others, Arthur Lee Butler and William Clayton, are serving life sentences in the Penitentiary.

The Country

By Harold Claassen
NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—(P)—
That the technical name for a football is "prolate spheroid" and that it will take many crazy bounces was reaffirmed last week with a record 37 correct selections and 10 incorrect ones.

(Average to date, 128 correct, 31 incorrect for .306).

This week's forecast:
Purdue-Ohio State: Despite the moans that Paul Sarringhaus and Dick Fisher, Buckeye backs, are injured the Ohioans will win this crucial Big Ten title contest.— Ohio State.

Georgia Tech-Navy: Remember that 17-15 Georgia Tech upset victory in Atlanta a year ago?—
Navy remembers it too—and Tech will remember Saturday night for a long time.—Navy.

Tennessee-Alabama: Harry Gilmer and the Alabama pass catching department will pull the Crimson Tide through this one.— Alabama.

Louisiana State-Georgia: Charlie Trippi, the recent ex-sergeant, will be the scoring surplus for the Bulldogs.—Georgia.

Notre Dame-Pittsburgh: The Irish will show Mr. Clark Shaughnessy how the T-formation really should be played.—Notre Dame.

Pacific-South: California: The Trojans, with ease, will regain their winning ways following that upset to San Diego navy last Saturday.

Northwestern-Minnesota: They call them the Golden Gophers.
They play football like starved tigers.—Minnesota.

Oklahoma A. & M.-Utah: The mountain scenery won't interfere with the Aggies' football tricks in any way.—Okla. A. & M.

Washington-Oregon State: The teams had almost identical scores at Oregon's expense. The home field should decide.—Oregon State Kentucky-Vanderbilt: Kentucky hasn't had time to recover from that 48 to 6 beating by Georgia a week ago.—Vanderbilt.

Indiana-Iowa: The lightweight Hawkeyes to get some tremendous bumps.—Indiana.

Auburn-Tulane: Coach Carl Voiles had two weeks in which to prepare a defense for Tulane's sputtering T-attack.—Auburn.

Texas-Arkansas: Ralph Ellsworth, who resigned from the navy academy this week, wont rejoin the Longhorns until Nov. 1 but his new mates have enough anyhow.—Texas.

Illinois-Wisconsin: The Illinois machine has been stabilized.—Illinois.

Colgate-Columbia: Gene Rossides' long passes will nullify Colgate's superior weight in the line.
—Columbia.

Wake Forest-No. Carolina State: (night) After having met Army and Duke, Wake Forest will find North Carolina State easy.

Melville Torpedo Boat Base-Army: The navy closes the Melville school Saturday noon. The Melville players will wish they could have disbanded at he same time.—Army.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Williams, 702
Wilkinson, entertained Saturday with a party in honor of the eleventh birthday anniversary of their daughter, Mary Helen.

Games were played during the afternoon with awards going to the winners.

Favors and decorations were in the Halloween motif.

Birthday cake was served with ice cream to the following young guests: Mary Lou Weathers, Carol Mettler, "Cappy" Bopp, Jane Boul, Regina Boul, Catherine Bax, Rosa-lee Hall, Patricia Hall, Annette Moser, Patricia Keating, Mildred
Wolf, Betty Wolf, Mary Patricia Wolf, Barbara Lamy, Ilene Moon,
Barbara Franke, Emily Dick, Ruth Pheiffer, Dorothy Kennedy and Madeline Cooney.

Mrs. Williams was assisted in serving by her daughter, Mrs.
Merle Lamb.

Mary Helen received many nice gifts.

Miss Anne Brosing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis K. Brosing of Bellevue, Neb., formerly of Sedalia, and Lieutenant Lewis C.
Mayo, Jr., U. S. A. A. F., son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Mayo of Birmingham, Ala., were married Saturday, September 29, in the First Presbyterian church at Pratt, Kas.

Rev. B. F. Henry read the wedding service at 5:00 o'clock that afternoon before an altar decorated with red roses.

Organ selections were played by Mrs. B. F. Henry.

The bride was educated at the University of Kansas City and the University of Nebraska.

Lt. Mayo attended the Alabama Polytechnic Institute and was affiliated with the Phi Delta Theta fraternity. He is at present stationed at Pratt Army Air Field.

Mrs. Omar Ash was hostess to a recent meeting of the LaMonte Friendship club and guests, Mrs.
George Lane and Mrs. E. D.
Guthrie.

After the business session, over which Mrs. P. S. Craig presided, the inspirational was led by Mrs.
R. E. Kerby. Each member gave her own ideas for helping make club meetings more interesting, the consensus being regular attendance and conscientious effort of trying to accomplish assigned work.

A study of the Crippled Children's Service for Missouri was led by the public welfare committee chairman, Mrs. C. N.
Moore. Infantile paralysis was discussed by Mrs. J. D. White, who stressed preventive measures, early medical care, proper diet, braces and education for the afflicted children of our own community. Mrs. C. E. Carroll told of the Blosser Convalescent Home for children at Marshall, her own home town.

A poem, "The World is Mine," was read by Mrs. Kerby.

Mrs. Carroll will be hostess to the next meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Arno Birdsong of California, Mo., have received announcement of the marriage of Miss Geraldine Bette Magley of Iona, Mich., to their son, William Thomas Birdsong, October 3 at the Little Cathedral of the Footfalls, Upland, Calif. The Rev. Samuel Hughes performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 75 persons.

Miss Elsie Smith of Ontario, Calif., served as maid of honor and Lieut. Patterson was best man.

The following excerpt is taken from an Ontario newspaper which also carried a picture of the couple:

"After the wedding service, a reception was held at the Ontario hotel where both Mr. and Mrs.
Birdsong are employed. They will continue to reside in the hotel until spring, when they will visit Mr. Birdsong's parents.

"The bride is a graduate of Ottawa Hills high school, Grand Rapids, Mich., and the bridegroom received his education in California, Mo."

Says Truman Has Evaded Strike Issue

Republican Whip
Proposes 5-Point
Legislative Plan

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—(P)—Enactment of legislation "with bulldog teeth" to deal "immediately and effectively" with the strike situation was proposed today by Rep. Arenas of Illinois, the house Republican whip.

He asserted in a statement "the President has evaded" the strike issue and added that the issue originated "in White House cordoning of a handful of arrogant labor leaders."

Arenas proposed a legislative program as follows:

1. Repeal the present War Labor Disputes Act. "The war is over and there is no reason for keeping the act on the books. What we need is a peacetime act with bulldog teeth."

Must Keep Contracts

2. Provide that labor unions must keep their contracts the same as employers. "This can be accomplished by simply prohibiting dues collection by contract breaking organizations. Also make unions financially liable for damage done by them during strikes."

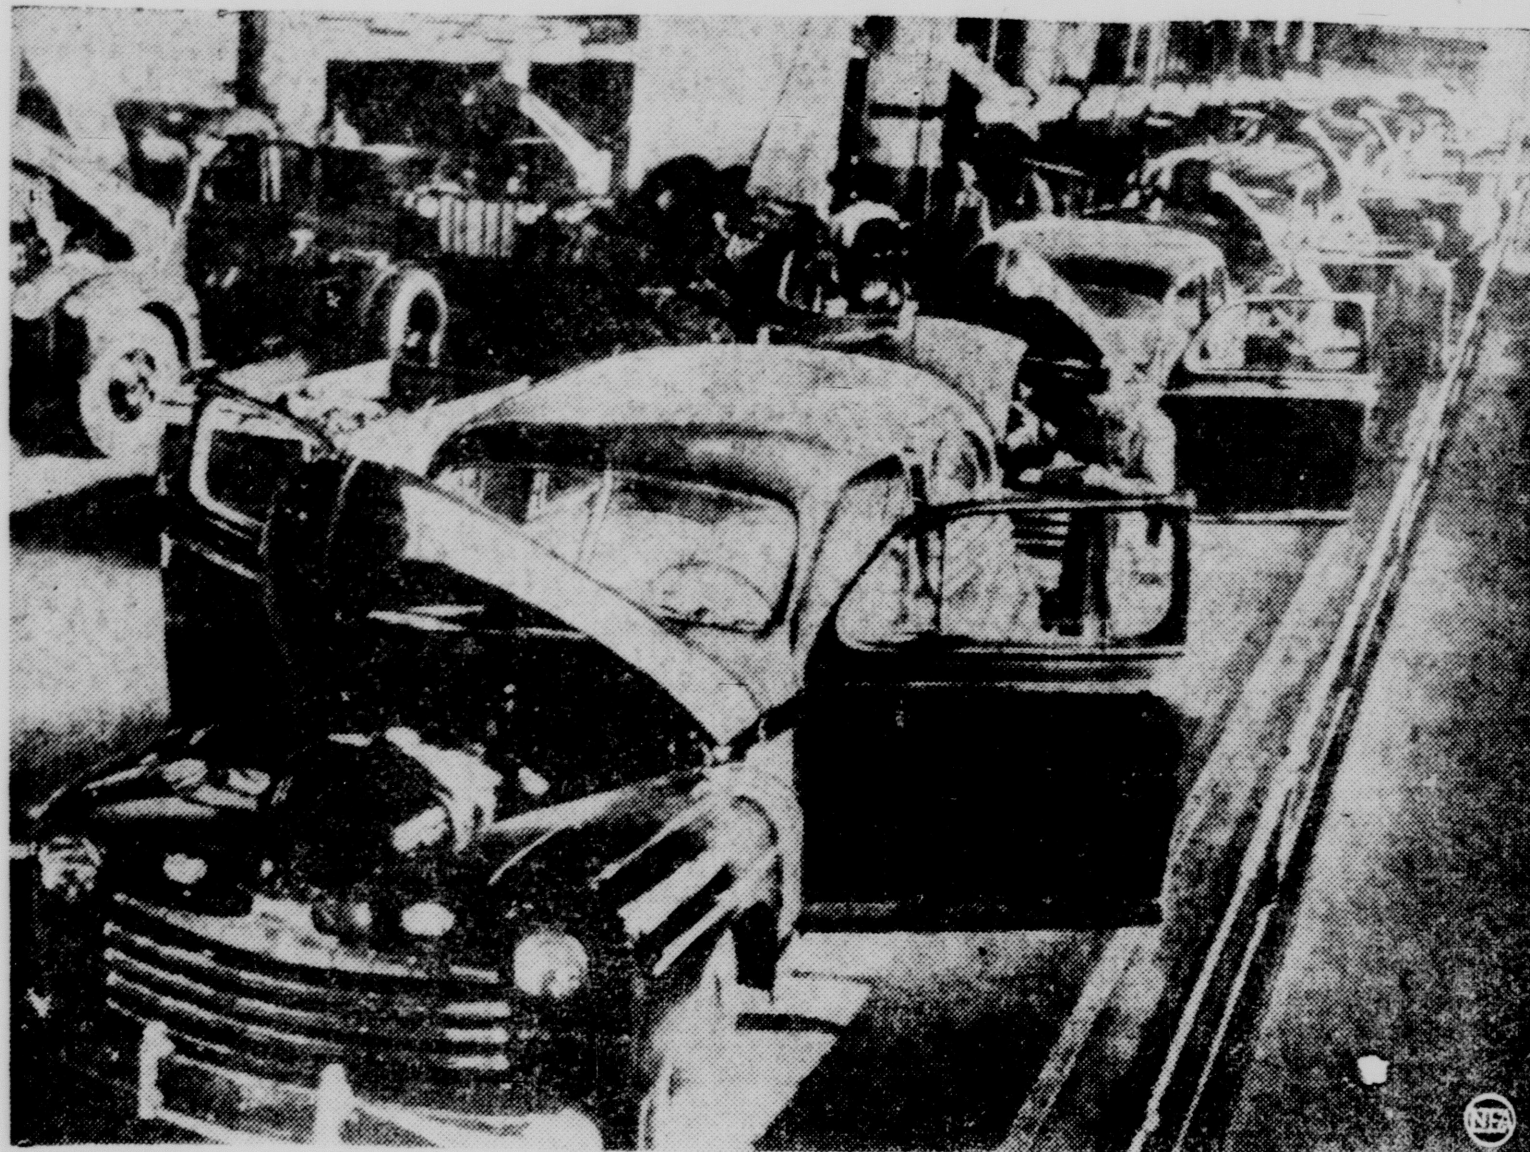

3. "It is unthinkable to have work stoppages in public utility, food, fuel and similar services necessary to the health and comfort of the nation. When disputes in these services which cannot be readily settled occur, let the government take over and operate the services with the workers classified as government employees while employees and employers discuss their differences. Government should act in these instances, as in all other labor disputes, as an unbiased judge and not as a prosecutor."

Deny Compensation

4. Deny employment compensation to all persons on strike. There "is no good reason why taxpayers generally should finance strikes of any kind."

5. Make national labor organiza-

New Fords Roll Off Assembly Lines Again

tions responsible for the activities of their local groups. "It is far too easy under present laws for national leaders to promote local strikes under cover and then plead 'no local control.' Here again suspension of the right to collect dues during wildcat strikes would be effective."

Meets Cabinet Today

Meanwhile, President Truman will take up with his cabinet tomorrow the problem of setting the nation's course on wage and price policy.

The present policy of the administration he told his news conference was reflected in speeches by Reconversion Director John W. Snyder in the past two days.

Snyder urged increasing wages but holding the line on prices.

Even as Mr. Truman told newsmen he was very happy that John L. Lewis had called off the strikes of 216,000 United Mine Workers, 54 of the 1,031 strike bound soft coal mines were already resuming operations. Lewis set next Monday as back-to-work day.

Goes Free In Shooting Case

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Oct. 18.—(P)—Pretty Imogene Stevens, central figure in a sensational New Canaan shooting, went free Thursday when Prosecutor Lorin W. Willis told the superior court he could not prove that her killing of Albert Kovacs, 19-year-old Norwalk sailor, made her guilty of manslaughter.

"All the evidence," said Willis, tended to support the contention of the 24-year-old wife of Major G. Ralsey Stevens III that she shot the youth in self defense.

Judge Ernest A. Inglis, commending Willis for "performing his duty," entered a nolle (dismissal) to the manslaughter charge on which Mrs. Stevens had been held since June 23.

The attractive defendant was at liberty in $15,000 bail and far from the scene when the case, the expected trial of which had been awaited with great interest, was thus quickly disposed of. Her lawyer said he telegraphed the news to her at Columbus, Ga., where her husband, a paratrooper, is stationed.

Willis informed the court that of the "conflicting statements" made about the case, the state would have to accept that of Mrs. Stevens, daughter of a former Pampa, Tex., policeman who married Major Stevens, her second husband, in Oklahoma two years ago shortly before he went overseas.

She said she encountered Kovacs and his brother, James, in the Milton home late at night, thought they were intruders, ordered them to leave and shot the sailor when he resisted her. She didn't know that the brothers were calling on Faith Coombs, a girl engaged by the Milton to stay with their children during their absence.

Hope California Likes Their Cows

MERCED, Calif., Oct. 19.—(P)—From Maine to California by boxcar was worth the trip, in the opinion of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gilbert, if the people out here appreciate the Gilberts' nine purebred cows.

The cows, which stood the nine-day trip well, were not properly appreciated in Maine, the Gilberts asserted.

Gilbert said that was one reason—in addition to hoping the change would relieve his asthma—that he and his wife decided to leave the New England state.

He expressed hope that California farmers would give him some competition in purebred cow raising. His are very fancy Dutch Belted registered cattle.

Mercer was quick with its appreciation. The Gilberts were given what amounted to a civic welcome when the Santa Fe train chugged into the station Sunday night with their boxcar.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert—he is 47 and she is about 45—were put up the first night at the Tioga hotel as guests of the Chamber of Commerce.

The next morning they found a temporary ranch home waiting for them.

Offers Reward In Wife's Death

PONTIAC, Mich., Oct. 19.—(P)—Louis V. Thompson, wealthy automobile dealer, Thursday offered a $1,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the slayer of his estranged wife, Mrs. Lydia Thompson.

The offer came as Oakland county authorities were checking a report that Mrs. Thompson had been stabbed repeatedly with an ice pick and that her life had been threatened three weeks before her mutilated body was found in a wooded lot last Saturday.

Prosecutor Donald C. Noggle said the story of threats and assaults with an ice pick was given him by H. W. Walker, a carpenter who claimed he had done work for Mrs. Thompson at her palatial home near here and at the laundry she operated in Highland park, adjacent to her husband's place of business.

He said Baker quoted the victim as saying "I was struck with an ice pick several times, about three weeks ago." Mrs. Thompson named her assailant and Baker gave him the name, Noggle said.

A medical examiner's report showed Mrs. Thompson's axeriddled body was punctured with numerous partially-healed stab wounds.

Co. F Practices Riot Control

Company F, 4th Missouri Infantry, met and had demonstrations in riot control formations, Thursday night at the armory, Ninth street and Ohio avenue.

1st Lieut. E. N. Reynolds instructed and put the company through various riot control formations showing different procedures in handling mobs and rioters. This means protecting lives and property.

2nd Lieut. V. W. Gilbert, gas officer of second battalion, lectured on the use of gas and use of demolitions in street fighting.

Sgt. James W. Atkinson held a radio class with Radiomen Cpl. Ray A. Berry, Pvt. J. V. Kesterson, Pvt. L. G. Woods and Pvt. Chambers.

Several new enlistments recently have been obtained in Co. F including a few World War II veterans.

Capt. Arthur B. Burke had the company mess sergeant prepare a dutch lunch at the end of drill.

Jack McCloskey Out Of Service

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCloskey of St. Louis are spending several days here visiting his mother, Mrs. C. F. McCloskey, 505 West Seventh street, and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Coxon, and family, 507 West Seventh street.

Mr. McCloskey was honorably discharged from service under the point system at Baer Field, Ft. Wayne, Ind., October 9. He served 26 months in the European theater of war, and returned to the States in August with the 435th Troop Carrier Command group.

He will resume his position in the legal claims department of the Travelers Insurance company, St. Louis branch. After November 1 Mr. and Mrs. McCloskey will be at home at 6239-A Eichlberger, St. Louis Hills.

Only the Finest Ingredients—The Same Old-Time Brewing and Ageing!

In war-time, Griesedieck Bros. Beer was usually first to be sold out at your dealer's—for we voluntarily pledged ourselves to make less, in order to give you only the best. Today, restrictions are lifting. Now, when you ask for Griesedieck Bros. Beer, your order will be filled more often. But remember this: in peace or in war—in times of shortage or plenty—Griesedieck Bros. Beer always has and will bring you the finest ingredients, brewed and aged the slow, old-time quality way! It's double mellow!

Sunday School Lesson

Making the Home Christian Scripture: Luke 10:38-42; I Corinthians 12:31; 13:1-13

By William E. Gilroy, D. D.
Christian homes don't just happen. They have to be made;
and it takes all the members of the family to make them.

They cannot be made by parents alone, no matter how good and well intentioned the parents may be. Some parents have assumed, or have acted as if they assumed, that if they loved their children enough and did enough for them, all would be well. They discovered too late, and often through tragedy, that they had lost out, and that their children had not reacted as they ought to have reacted to kindness and devotion.

Children need discipline and training as well as affection and devotion. They need to learn to bear the burdens and responsibilities that will be theirs when they grow up and it is no kindness to shield them from everything hard or unpleasant.

Sharing ought to be the spirit and practice of home life. Children ought to be trained to understand the problems of the home. The money given them, the clothes they wear, the food they eat, the house they live in must come from the wages of the father or mother. Unless a child is made to understand this, he may grow up to think of his parents only as providers, who hand out everything he asks for.

The spirit of demanding rather than that of giving, may easily become the dominant characteristic of children who grow up in a home where parents are thoughtlessly generous, often handing out because of selfish children the things they can ill afford. And the worst of such a situation comes later in life, when the children grown up, are utterly unprepared for the exigencies of life on their own.

Helping ought to be a part of every well regulated Christian home. Little duties should be assigned to and done by all. Here, too, training for the future is all-important. The child who has not learned to do things is ill prepared for life. Children do not always do things readily or willingly and the parent under such circumstances is tempted to say, "It's more bother than it's worth; I'll do it myself." But that is a mistake.

For the sake of the child and his future it is worth while to take pains and trouble enough to train him to do things, and in most cases he will learn to do things willingly, or as a matter of normal duty.

These things are inherent in the Christian way and are important factors in a happy home. Love implies mutual relationships and obligations. A home in which love is one-sided is off balance. Love, too, implies a willingness to bear and forbear. Paul says in the Scripture for our lesson, "Love suffereth long and is kind." One ought to note how much the Bible has to say about such things as patience, forbearance, long suffering endurance, etc.

The test of love is in the trials and hard things of life, and these are not avoidable in the home. In fact the home which can be the place of the finest relationships and consequent happiness, can be the place of the worst of irritations and frictions.
I have heard of a man who added to the words, "There's no place like home," the fervent ejaculation, "Thank God, there isn't." Homes can be hell, instead of heaven. But homes can be made and kept Christian.

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN, Mis-

The Danger of Scandal

A tendency in some quarters is to point the finger of scorn at those who have the reputation of being assiduous churchgoers but are also known as mean, under-handed, and greedy in their relations with others. The critics are no doubt justified in excoriating hypocrisy, but it is neither fair nor logical to imply, as they so often do, that because there are bad Christians, Christianity itself has failed.

There is no need to stress the fallacy of this assumption. Even among the first thirteen chosen by Christ there were two who betrayed Him, one out of weakness and the other out of greed; and yet the church prospered. What does need to be stressed very much, however, is the tragedy of Christian giving scandal by their failure to act at all times as truth and conscience demand. By sins against charity and justice, they furnish ammunition for skeptics who profess to see many Christians in the world but no Christianity.

It is a commonplace observation that a thousand deeds of virtue may go unnoticed while a single sin may set the world a-gog. This does not suggest that individual Christians should be less concerned over leading good lives, but rather that they should ponder more the fact that a single sin may reach out and become magnified, like the ripples of a pool in which a pebble is dropped, until its consequences are incalculable. Sin breeds misery and fear in the world, but when it bears the stamp of Christian authorship it becomes pregnant also with the poison of scandal.

In all Christian churches today, a social challenge is being sounded. There is a need for Christians who will not only uphold the letter of the Christian law, but will carry its spirit more ardently and resolutely into their daily lives; who will convince the scoffers and skeptics that Christianity is not only a way to individual salvation, but a force that reaches out to the suffering and dispossessed, seeking to create a lasting brotherhood from which none shall be excluded.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

CHURCHES

"PROBATION AFTER DEATH" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 28, 1945.
Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee:
... Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil." (Prov. 4:25, 27).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy:
"If the change called death destroyed the belief in sin, sickness, and death, happiness would be won at the moment of dissolution, and be forever permanent; but this is not so. Perfection is gained only by perfection. They who are unrighteous shall be unrighteous still, until in divine Science Christ, Truth, removes all ignorance and sin." (p-290)

SHERIFF'S SALE IN PARTITION

By virtue and authority of an order of sale in partition, issued out of the office of the clerk of the circuit court of Pettis County, Missouri, dated the 29th day of September, 1945, and to me directed in favor of Joe K. Jenkins as plaintiff, and against Nimrod Jenkins, Charles Jenkins, Roy N. Jenkins, Susie Lutz, Meyers Jenkins, Grotha Jenkins Herlinger, James Ernest Jenkins and Lucille Jenkins, defendants, and it appearing to the court that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in his petition, ordered that the property described in plaintiff's petition be sold by the sheriff of Pettis County, Missouri, as provided by law in such cases. Now, therefore, in order to comply with the terms of said order of sale, I, the undersigned sheriff of Pettis County, Missouri, shall proceed to sell the said real estate, so ordered, sold, and situated in Pettis County, Missouri, to-wit:

The North East Quarter of the North East Quarter of Section number Nineteen (19) and Twelve (12) acres off of the West side of the Northwest Quarter of the North West Quarter of Section number Twenty (20), and the East Half of the South East Quarter of Section number Eighteen (18), and twelve (12) acres off of the West side of the North West Quarter of the Southwest Quarter of Section number Seventeen (17), all in township number Forty-seven (47) North, of Range number twenty (20), west of the Fifth Principal Meridian, containing one hundred and forty-four (144) acres, more or less, in Pettis County, Missouri.

And I will on Saturday, the 27th day of October 1945, between the hours of 9 o'clock a. m. and 5 o'clock p. m. of said day, at the west front door of the court house, in the City of Sedalia, Pettis County, Missouri, and while the circuit court is in session, sell the above described real estate for cash in hand in order to comply with the said order of sale.

Dated this 2nd day of October 1945.

Children's Code Group Named

JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 19.—(P)—A five-member children's code commission, to study the problems of juvenile delinquency and modernization of Missouri Children's laws, was appointed today by Gov. Phil M. Donnelly.

The members: Supreme Court Judge Albert M. Clark; Mrs. Reding Putnam, active in child welfare activities in Kansas City; Dean Alfonso G. Eberle of St. Louis University law school; Dr. Franc McCluer, president of Westminster College, Fulton, and Mrs. L. Benoit Tompkins, active in St. Louis children's work.

The commission is directed by law, passed last spring, to study the needs of dependent, neglected and delinquent children and review children's laws with a view to weeding out obsolete statutes and bringing the juvenile correction system up to date. It has until Dec. 31, 1946, to report to the governor and the legislature.

"These laws need revamping," the governor said. He recommended such a commission in his inauguration message last January and Speaker Howard Elliott (R) of St. Louis county sponsored the legislation.

Fashion Director In Sedalia Visit

Miss Verne Clark, who recently became the fashion director of Town and Country Shoe company, with offices in New York City, was in Sedalia Thursday with a preview of 1946 styles in Town and Country footwear with matching accessories.

She says Town and Country is the first shoe company in America to offer casuals with matching accessories. No longer will women have to go from store to store trying to match those little items which can make or ruin their costumes. Too many times they go home tired and disgusted with those almost, but not quite, matching accessories.

Now Town and Country has taken care of that and about the first of the year there will be on the market shoes, bags and belts made of the same leather and crocheted hats and gloves made of the same yarn in as nearly the same shades as yarn can be like leather. There won't be just one style of each in the color you want, either. You will be able to match them up to suit yourself all in one store.

There will be attractive bags with adjustable shoulder straps, several styles of belts which are both beautiful and durable, hats of the wedding ring cap fashion, the bandeau type which ties under your hair or the comfortable little beanie and pretty crocheted gloves all to go with the new casual style shoes made right in Sedalia by the Town and Country shoe company.

A new neutral shade which will blend with practically every color and which has not yet been named, will be featured as the spring fashion.

Has New Set Of Senatorial Districts

Decision Reached Places Pettis In 33rd District

JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 19.—

(P)—A special commission set up 34 new states senatorial districts for Missouri late Thursday, completing the first big reorganization job mapped out by the 1943 constitution.

The five Democrats and five Republicans, filing their report with Secretary of State Wilson Bell to make it effective, said they had agreed unanimously after more than five months work.

It was the first time since 1901 the senatorial districts had been touched.

Gov. Phil M. Donnelly, who appointed the commission May 25, was on hand for the final ceremony of submitting the new alignment.

Under the new plan, both of Missouri's metropolitan areas gain representation. The city of St. Louis will have seven senators instead of six, Jackson county (Kansas City) and St. Louis county will have two instead of sharing one with two other counties as at present.

The other 21 districts are divided over the state, with several long standing combinations upset by addition of new counties.

Of the 17 senators in even numbered districts, up for reelection next year, two will run only in single counties.

Sen. Jasphe Smith (R) of Springfield had his district trimmed to Greene county, losing Vernon, Barton and Dade counties. Sen. Francis Smith (D) of St. Joseph will run only in Buchanan county as before.

Two Not Touched

The same is true of the Republican Floor Leader, Sen. H. R. Williams of Cassville, whose four-county district, Barry, Lawrence, Newton and McDonald was not changed, and Sen. M. C. Matthes (R) of Hillsboro, president pro tem, whose five counties—Jefferson, Madison, Perry, St. Francois and Ste. Genevieve—were not touched.

But the Democratic Floor Leader, Sen. Emery W. Allison of Rolla, had three new counties, Shannon, Carter and Oregon added to his old district of Phelps, Crawford, Washington, Dent, Iron and Reynolds.

Change For Blain, Hart

The lineup for other incumbents facing election campaigns next year includes:

Sen. W. W. Blain (R) of Sedalia. Old district 15 had Saline, Pettis, Benton and Hickory counties. New district 33 drops Saline and adds Cooper, Moniteau, Miller and Morgan.

Sen. H. B. Hart (R) of Versailles, old district 14 had Morgan, Camden, Moniteau, Cooper and Howard counties. New district 33 adds Pettis, Benton, Miller and Hickory and drops Howard and Camden—Hart's home county.

District 33 will be the home of three Republican incumbents — Sens. Blain, C. R. Hawkins of Brumley and H. B. Hart of Versailles. Blain and Hawkins hold over while Hart's term expires next year.

Politically the new lineup appeared rather evenly divided. Veteran capital observers listed 10 of the 21 outstate districts as probably Republican on the basis of their voting in recent elections, with eight probably Democratic and three others as too close to predict.

In the two big cities, the districts are not yet defined, although Democrats have elected the most senators from there and Republicans have controlled St. Louis county.

Currently the senate has 19 Republicans and 15 Democrats—the second time in history Republicans have held the edge. Eleven Democrats and six Republicans hold over next year.

Commission Sets Up New Senatorial Districts In State

Pettis Is In 33 Instead Of 15; First Such Change Since 1901

Gromyko's Visit Remains Mystery

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18—(AP)—The flying visit of Soviet Ambassador Gromyko to Washington remained a mystery tonight. Both the state department and White House denied having received any communication from him.

A state department spokesman said that he had checked every conceivable source and that no communication from Gromyko or the Soviet embassy had been received either at the department or at the White House.

Gromyko, who visited Washington for less than 24 hours Monday, was reported to have dropped a hint to newsmen in London that he had delivered a letter from Premier Stalin to President Truman.

He was reported as saying the state department might have something to say about his brief visit.

The state department and White House, following an initial mixup, announced that Gromyko had not seen either President Truman or Secretary Byrnes.

Turn Thumbs Down on MV Authority

Irrigation Group Rejects Plan by A 12 to 2 Vote

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18—(AP)—The Senate irrigation committee today turned thumbs down by a 12 to 2 vote on a measure by Senator Murray (D-Mont) for a Missouri Valley authority.

The Senate commerce committee previously had rejected the bill. It will go to the Senate agriculture committee for a last review, however, before Senate action.

Chairman Bankhead (D-Ala.) of the irrigation committee told a reporter he believed there was "little chance" of Senate passage.

The chairman said Senators Langer (R-ND) and Mitchell (D-Wash) voted for the Murray bill while he and the following were opposed.

Object To Three Man Board
The bill would put virtually all water programs in the Missouri river valley under a three man board of directors.

The irrigation committee adopted a subcommittee's unfavorable report which asserted that "creation of an MVA would amount to the welding of economic and political powers resulting in nothing short of autocracy."

"It would mean the substitution of arbitrary power for democratic processes. It would mean the creation of a superstate—neither federal nor state, and not contemplated by our constitution."

"It would subject the social, cultural and economic welfare of the Missouri Basin to the distastes and whims of a three-man board, not responsible to the people and largely irresponsible to the Congress itself."

"It would challenge state sovereignty and destroy system of laws, both state and federal, under which western agriculture has grown and prospered."

'Be Generous in Victory' Slogan

"Be Generous in Victory" is the slogan of the War Chest Drive and people of Sedalia and Pettis county are asked to remember that when they make their contributions.

Funds are badly needed this year to help the people of war torn countries recover from want and starvation.

The need this year is even greater and people are asked to give more liberally in a thanksgiving of victory in a war that did not demolish our homes and our country.

Instructive Talk On Service Men

"The Returning Service Man," was the subject of a talk by Lt. Louis Siegel, Public Relations Officer, Sedalia Army Air Base, before the Sedalia Kiwanis Club at its meeting in Bothwell Hotel Thursday noon. He was introduced by Ben Robinson who presided as program chairman during absence of his brother Dan Robinson.

Lt. Siegel's verbal description of the returning service man was instructive for the group of business men who in coming months will begin to employ and reemploy veterans of World War II. He urged the employers to be patient with these men who have learned a great deal about human relationships during their war time service, men who have matured quickly in three or four years, men who are not mentally dull but who have learned to study the reasons why, to understand cause and effect.

The returning veteran, the speaker said, is going to return to civilian life, expecting employment, and with a desire to understand why reconversion processes are not moving forward, why after he has been taught to get along with his fellow men in the army to accomplish one objective—the war—why, in civilian life, men are not getting along together to win the peace; what are the obstacles and how to remove them.

Guests were: Sgts. Kelly Edgington and Bob Boothe with M. O. Weathers; Thurlow Puckett, with the Rev. B. H. Campbell.

Offers Reward In Wife's Death

PONTIAC, Mich., Oct. 18—(AP)—Louis V. Thompson, wealthy automobile dealer, today offered a $1,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the slayer of his estranged wife, Mrs. Lydia Thompson.

The offer came as Oakland county authorities were checking a report that Mrs. Thompson had been stabbed repeatedly with an ice pick and that her life had been threatened three weeks before her mutilated body was found in a wooded lot last Saturday.

Prosecutor Donald C. Noggle said the story of threats and assaults with an ice pick was given him by H. W. Walker, a carpenter who claimed he had done work for Mrs. Thompson at her palatial home near here and at the laundry she operated in Highland park, adjacent to her husband's place of business.

He said Baker quoted the victim as saying "I was struck with an ice pick several times, about three weeks ago." Mrs. Thompson named her assailant and Baker gave him the name, Noggle said.

A medical examiner's report showed Mrs. Thompson's ax-riddled body was punctured with numerous partially-healed stab wounds.

Says Truman Has Evaded Strike Issue

Republican Whip Proposes 5-Point Legislative Plan

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18—(AP)—Enactment of legislation "with bulldog teeth" to deal "immediately and effectively" with the strike situation was proposed today by Rep. Arends of Illinois, the house Republican whip.

He asserted in a statement "the President has evaded" the strike issue and added that the issue originated "in White House coding of a handful of arrogant labor leaders."

Arends proposed a legislative program as follows:

1. Repeal the present War Labor Disputes Act. "The war is over and there is no reason for keeping the act on the books. What we need is a peacetime act with bulldog teeth."

Must Keep Contracts

2. Provide that labor unions must keep their contracts the same as employers. "This can be accomplished by simply prohibiting dues collection by contract breaking organizations. Also make unions financially liable for damage done by them during strikes."

3. "It is unthinkable to have work stoppages in public utility, food, fuel and similar services necessary to the health and comfort of the nation. When disputes in these services which cannot be readily settled occur, let the government take over and operate the services with the workers classified as government employees while employees and employers discuss their differences. Government should act in these instances, as in all other labor disputes, as an unbiased judge and not as a prosecutor."

4. Deny employment compensation to all persons on strike. There "is no good reason why taxpayers generally should finance strikes of any kind."

5. Make national labor organizations responsible for the activities of their local groups. "It is far too easy under present laws for national leaders to promote local strikes under cover and then plead 'no local control.' Here again suspension of the right to collect dues during wildcat strikes would be effective."

Continue Search For War Fortunes

U. S. Soldiers Also Find Hidden Arms, Ammunition

TOKYO, Oct. 18—(AP)—American occupation troops continued to search the Japanese hinterland today for the remains of Nipponese war fortunes after uncovering nearly $300,000,000 worth of hidden diamonds, gold, silver and platinum.

In a house-to-house raid in Tokyo other American soldiers, working with Japanese police, collected 20 truck loads of hidden arms and ammunition.

An estimated 90 per cent of the world's illegal narcotics supply was cut off abruptly by a sweep American headquarters order which called for the destruction of many acres of opium, hashish, morphine and cocaine.

Palace Virtually Destroyed

An American counter intelligence agency patrol led by Brig. Gen. Elliot R. Thorpe in an investigation of the emperor's palace grounds discovered that Hirohito's palace had been virtually destroyed during the war.

The imperial building was raised by fire blown over the compound walls from burning buildings outside.

The latest and most dazzling discovery made by the occupation troops in their "Japanese treasury hunt" was the finding of $30,000,000 worth of diamonds in cheap thermos bottles in a Mitsui Trust company safety deposit box.

The fabulous cache of 131,000 karats of diamonds was largely government owned. Many of the stones had been obtained through deceit of the Japanese people. They were deposited in the bank vault in the name of a government import and export control agency.

Fortune To Bank

Meanwhile millions of dollars worth of gold and silver were transferred from Japan's bomb-battered mint to the bank of Japan where it will be held for distribution on direction from Washington.

Armed American soldiers and armored cars guarded the six-mile-long gold and silver route through the heart of Tokyo.

Previously $2,000,000 worth of silver bars were found hidden in a farmer's barn near Kasugai, 85 miles from Tokyo, and $1,000,000 worth of silver was uncovered near a machine shop at Haratsuka, about 100 miles from the Japanese capital.

Smaller amounts of diamonds and precious metals have been located by soldiers operating under the direction of American and Japanese intelligence authorities.

In a message to General MacArthur, Japanese Christian leader Toyohiko Kagawa urged the Allied commander-in-chief to divert part of the more than $250,000,000 worth of valuables previously seized to pay for imports of food.

Allays Fears On Foreign Developments

Truman Discusses International Issues With Newsmen

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
WASHINGTON, Oct. 18—(AP)—President Truman sought today to allay fears over troublesome international developments with assurances of eventual settlement through negotiations.

Replying to news conference questions on differences with Russia over policy in the Balkans and Japan, and with the British over Palestine, the President declared that:

1. The stalemate over the Balkans at the Foreign Minister meeting in London, which now has spread to questions of Far East control, will be worked out in correspondence with other governments.

2. He has asked Prime Minister Attlee of Great Britain to permit immigration of 100,000 stateless Jews into Palestine. The British government still has the question under consideration, but Attlee thinks this figure too high.

3. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's suggestion that the Japanese people determine Emperor Hirohito's future is a good plan, as he views it, although no policy has been established on that question.

4. No new "Big Three Meeting" is in contemplation to iron out difficulties which developed at London.

5. He does not know why Soviet Ambassador Gromyko came to Washington on a flying trip this week, wishes he did, and can only suppose it was on the ambassador's personal business.

Allows Questions
The President, asserting he had no important announcements to make, immediately turned his conference over to questioners.

Asked if he or the state department is taking any initiative to attempt to "break the stalemate" that developed in London, and has now developed here on the Far East, the President replied that this has been done in correspondence with other governments.

He hopes it eventually will be worked out, he said. Then he added he is sure it will be.

The President said the correspondence includes all the interested governments, about 10 or 12.

Russians May Stall

There have been intimations in some quarters that the Soviet Union may boycott the first meeting of the Far Eastern advisory commission here next Tuesday. James F. Byrnes, secretary of state, told a news conference Wednesday that Russia is standing on its contention that a four-power Allied control council for Japan should be set up in Tokyo before any advisory commission is brought into being.

The President said he had received messages from Generalissimo Stalin lately, but they were merely formal communications dealing with matters not currently in the limelight.

Strike News At A Glance

By The Associated Press
About 448,000 on strike or indirectly out of work because of labor disputes. Principal industries affected:

Public utilities—2,000 CIO workers walk out of Consumers Power company but electric service generally maintained for 2,000,000 Michigan consumers in broad industrial section, excluding Detroit; mediators strive to settle wage dispute.

Shipping—insurgent New York AFL longshoremen call off movement to continue dockhands' strike; about half of 35,000 strikers back; union, employers resume contract negotiations broken off 18 days ago.

Coal—bituminous miners began back-to-work march four days in advance of date set by John L. Lewis; steel mills prepare to restore production to capacity as soon as coal is ready.

Motion pictures—police head off renewal of strikers' sitdown tactics at Warner Brothers studio entrances; screen actors guild calls on producers to rehire strikers out since March, originally in AFL jurisdictional squabble.

Lumber—61,000 AFL lumber and sawmill workers remain on strike in demand of industry-wide hourly scale of $1.10.

Transportation—strike of 2,700 AFL Greyhound bus drivers in west continues.

Wants Army, Navy As Joint Potent Force

General Marshall Favors Unification; Endorses Measure

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18—(AP)—Gen. George C. Marshall urged congress today to merge the army and navy into a single, potent military force that will "command the respect of the world."

He said it must be backed by a single, "businesslike" intelligence service to keep us abreast of what other countries are doing and planning.

The only safe road to peace, the army chief of staff told the senate military affairs committee, is to be so strong that nobody can "get a running start and overwhelm us."

Proposed Step

As steps in that direction he proposed:

1. Consolidation of air, land and sea branches under a single cabinet officer.

2. Passage of a law requiring the joint chiefs of staff to draft an over-all military program yearly for submission to the President and later approval or rejection by congress.

3. Substitution of a single, world-wide intelligence system for the over-the-coffee-cup reports on which he said this country depended before the war.

Marshall endorsed a pending measure by Senator Hill (D-Ala.) to fuse the army and navy into one organization, with three coordinate branches for air, land and sea.

"The national security is a single problem and it cannot be provided for a piecemeal basis," he declared.

Lack Of Unity Evident
The five-star general said that already the end of the war has brought "evidences of lack of unity" between the army and navy on major matters.

He said, for instance, the navy had submitted to congress a post-war plan for keeping a fleet of the immense wartime fleet in operation, holding a third in reserve and laying up the remainder.

The first the army knew about it, Marshall said, was when the plan came out in the newspapers.

Marshall made it fully clear that he doesn't think this country will be highly regarded abroad unless it keeps its powder dry.

Hope California Likes Their Cows

MERCED, Calif., Oct. 18—(AP)—From Maine to California by boxcar was worth the trip, in the opinion of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gilbert, if the people out there appreciate the Gilberts' nine purebred cows.

The cows, which stood the nine-day trip well, were not properly appreciated in Maine, the Gilberts asserted.

Gilbert said that was one reason—in addition to hoping the change would relieve his asthma—that he and his wife decided to leave the New England state.

He expressed hope that California farmers would give him some competition in purebred cow raising. His are very fancy Dutch Belled registered cattle.

Merced was quick with its appreciation. The Gilberts were given what amounted to a civic welcome when the Santa Fe train chugged into the station Sunday night with their boxcar.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert—he is 47 and she is about 45—were put up the first night at the Tioga hotel as guests of the Chamber of Commerce.

The next morning they found a temporary ranch home waiting for them.

Will Be Tried Next Month In Nuernberg

Document Recites Tortures, Persecution That Claimed Ten Million Dead

By RICHARD KASISCHKE
BERLIN, Oct. 18—(AP)—Humanity's case against the bloody Hitler regime was set forth in a historic indictment today against the major German war criminals who will be tried next month in Nuernberg.

The massive, 24,000 word catalogue of Nazi tortures and persecution that claimed 10,000,000 dead was filed with the international war crimes court in Berlin. It will be presented tomorrow morning to the jailed members of the Nazi hierarchy in their cells in Nuernberg.

Specifically the indictment named 24 survivors of the Nazi governmental, industrial and military hierarchy. In addition it asked conviction as "criminals groups" of seven Nazi organizations, including leading members of the German general staff and high command.

Heading the list of 24 is Reichsmarshal Hermann Wilhelm Goering, the "No. 2 Nazi." Hitler is not charged in the indictment because of some indications that he died in the ruins of the city.

Crime Against Humanity

In seeking the death of Goering, Rudolf Hess, Foreign Minister Joachim Von Ribbentrop and the others, the Allies hope to establish a new principle in a future code of conduct for mankind—that conspiring to wage war is a crime against humanity.

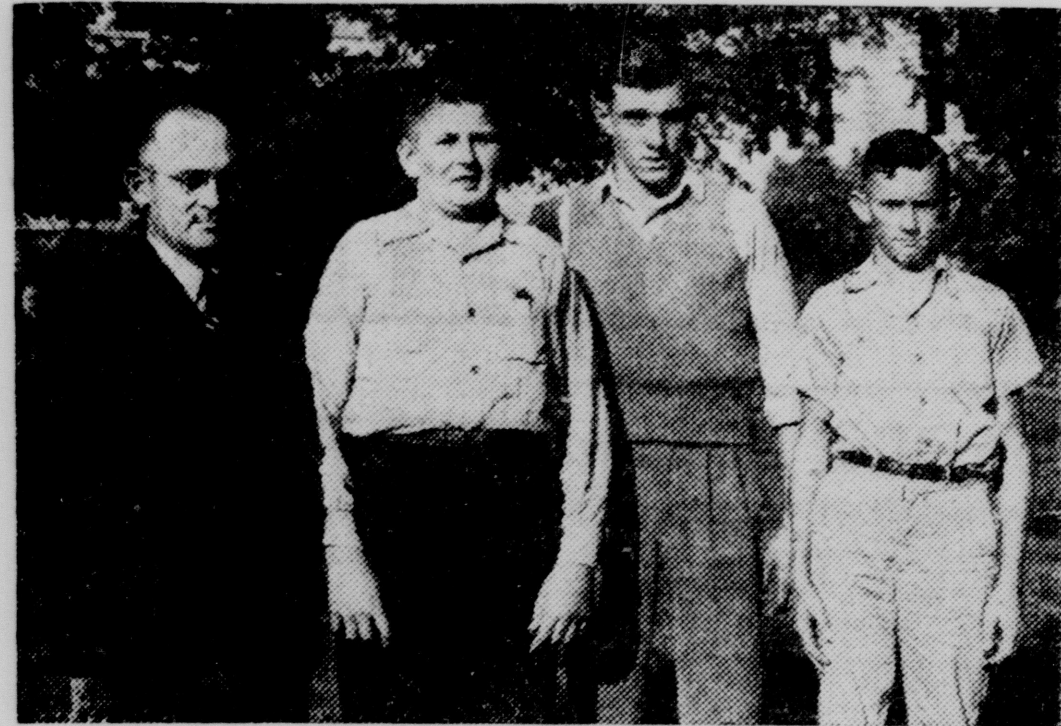

In addition to the general staff and the high command the other organizations named included the Gestapo, the SS (Elite Guard) troops of the Nazi party, the Storm Troopers, the SD or Secret Service Sicherheitsdienst, the German cabinet, and the Leadership Corps of the Nazi party.

One Entity

A spokesman for the American prosecutor, Justice Robert H. Jackson, said that the general staff and high command would be considered "as one entity, with a choice representative segment specifically indicted."

Those already named in the indictment are Alfred Jodl, Colonel-General and chief of the army staff; Wilhelm Keitel, field marshal and chief of the high command; Karl Doenitz, grand admiral and commander-in-chief of the German navy; Erich Raeder, grand admiral and former commander of the navy.

Pettis County Team Winning Livestock Judging At M. U.

Reading left to right: J. U. Morris, Pettis County Farm Agent, G. B. Thompson, Quisenberry 4-H club; Tom Welliver, Flat Creek Club and Robert Hoehns from the Brushy-Ringen Club.

The Pettis County 4-H livestock judging team, which won the livestock district judging contest at the Missouri State Fair, won the state 4-H livestock judging contest at Columbia Saturday, October 6. This team is composed of Thomas Welliver, from the Flat Creek club, G. B. Thompson, from the Quisenberry club, and Robert Hoehns, from the Brushy-Ringen club, and coached by J. U. Morris, County Extension Agent.

Five 4-H livestock judging teams participated in the state contest. These teams were the district winners from northeast Missouri, northwest Missouri, southwest Missouri, and west central Missouri. The Pettis county team represented the west central Missouri area.

In the contest they placed six classes of livestock including two of sheep, two of beef cattle, and two of hogs. Their scores were based upon their placings and reasons given on the various classes.

Extension Council Plans For 1946

The Pettis County Extension Council met Friday, October 5, to make plans for the 1946 program. Leader training meetings will be held for five projects: landscaping, furniture arrangement, easy mending, slip covers, and business facts for women.

Miss Alice Alexander was introduced to the group as Home Demonstration Agent to succeed Miss Dorothy Bacon, who leaves to do 4-H club work in Columbia. The council presented Miss Bacon with a traveling bag as a going-away gift.

Those in attendance: Mrs. H. B. Scott, Blackwater Progressive; Mrs. A. B. Cook, Dresden; Mrs. Roy Petty, Oak Grove; Miss Elizabeth Scott, Langwood and Neighborhood; Mrs. Wayne Stark, Van Natta; Mrs. Wiley Booth, Quisenberry; Mrs. E. A. Crenshaw, Ionia; Mrs. T. E. Patterson, Bennett; Mrs. C. Roden-bach, Sunnyside; Mrs. R. W. Dow, Georgetown; Mrs. O. R. Demand, Smithton; Mrs. Hubert Finley, Smithton Friendly Homemakers; Mrs. Chas. Snow, Walnut Grove; Mrs. Geo. Crole, La Monte, Thursday; Mrs. Alfred Schlobohm, Ringen; Mrs. Harry Kehl, South Abell; Mrs. Albert Anderson, Hopewell; Mrs. J. R. Hammond, Hopewell; Mrs. F. S. Ellis, Maplewood; Mrs. Will Fowler and Mrs. Jock Naegel, Hopewell; Mrs. J. T. Edmundson, Flat Creek; Mrs. Margaret Youngkamp, Arator; Mrs. C. E. Carrol, La Monte Homemakers; Mrs. Harry Tevis, Prairie Ridge; Mrs. Lucy Bothwell, Bothwell; Mrs. S. W. McClure, Quisenberry; Mrs. H. H. Fisher, Mrs. Glen Cox, Mrs. Ernest Biggs, Champion Striped College; Miss Flossie Ferguson, Bowling Green; Miss Virginia Slusher, Miss Alice Mae Alexander, and Miss Dorothy Bacon.

Lower Cost Of Milk Through Producing By Good Sires

The dairyman who now improves his herd through the use of a good sire can expect to have a lowered cost of milk production in the years ahead. This statement was made by A. C. Ragsdale of the University of Missouri College of Agriculture in a report of dairy breeding investigations at the Hatch Experiment Station farm near Hannibal.

These experiments, extending over 15 years, have again shown that sires capable of transmitting high production are major factors influencing the economy of milk and fat production in Missouri dairy herds. Comparison of a great number of records in 1941, before dairy prices had advanced to present levels, indicated that a cow producing 200 lbs. of fat a year returned $1.93 for each dollar invested in feed, a 300-lb. cow returned $2.39, and a 400-lb. fat producer returned $2.77.

As typical of the influence of several proved sires in the Hatch Farm breeding experiments, Mr. Ragsdale cited the example of Avanelle's Forfarshire, a gold and silver medal bull used in both the University herd at Columbia and in the Hatch Farm herd. When this bull was selected for these experiments he had 11 daughters averaging over 400 lbs. of fat a year as 2-year-olds. The tested daughters of this sire now number 31. On the records of the American Jersey Cattle Club the average yearly production of these 31 cows is shown to be 10,002 lbs. of milk and 582 pounds of fat on a mature basis. In addition, several sons of this bull, with sufficient numbers of daughters tested to be proved, are giving excellent results in Missouri herds.

The ancestors of Avanelle's Forfarshire were also proved producers. His sire, Forfarshire's Love, a gold medal bull, had 12 tested daughters averaging 9,448 lbs. of milk and 541 lbs. of fat as 4-year-olds. His dam, Attorney's Avanelle, had a 2-year-old record of 7,841 lbs. of milk and 456 lbs. of fat.

In selecting a sire for herd improvement the safest sire to use, if he can be procured, is a proved sire. Such a sire should have at least five unselected tested daughters. The daughters should be of acceptable conformation and have the kind of udders that will wear well under heavy production. Proved sires are scarce and often high priced, so most dairymen must depend upon unproved sires. In selecting a young bull, the best results may be expected when all the close-up ancestry are proved for high production and superior type. One of the safest plans is to select a son of a good proved sire out of a tested daughter of a proved sire.

Short Course Be Held On Seed

Professor Charles A. Helm, department of field crops, University of Missouri, announces that there will be a seed short course held in connection with the Missouri state seed show, in Columbia, Missouri, on December 12 and 13. The program for the seed short course is as follows:

Wednesday, December 12
10:00 a. m. The work of the Department of Field Crops in Development and Improvement of Crop Varieties, W. C. Etheridge.
10:30 a. m. Pasture Management, E. Marion Brown.
11:00 to 12:00 Seed show.
1:30 p. m. Oat Varieties and Oat Production, J. M. Poehlman.
2:00 p. m. Soybean Varieties and Soybean Production, B. M. King.
2:30 to 5:00 Seed Show.

Thursday, December 13
8:00 to 10:00 a. m. Seed Show
10:00 to 12:00 a. m. Annual Meeting of Missouri Seed Improvement Association.

Arrives on Furlough
Y2C Spencer Neighbors, of the USS Shamrock Bay, has arrived from San Francisco, Calif., to spend a seven-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Neighbors, and grandfather, T. E. Williams, of Knob Noster. Upon reporting back for duty, he will sail for Guam.

Digestive functions are slowed down as much as 33 per cent at altitudes of 10,000 feet and above; this fact created a diet problem for crews of bombers operating at that height.

Selken Holstein Sells for $510

Nineteen of Missouri's leading Holstein breeders entered 60 animals in a show of the Missouri Holstein Breeders' association held recently in Columbia at the University of Missouri livestock judging pavilion. Heaviest winners, declared by Dr. H. A. Herman, official judge, were the Paul Selken farms of Smithton and the University of Missouri, with six blue ribbons each, and the Clyde Hill farms of Clyde and Glenn G. Davis of Columbia, with three blues each. No championships were awarded.

Buyers from Pennsylvania, Kansas, Iowa, Illinois and Missouri participated in the afternoon sales. The average on 54 head was $298.61, or practically the same as for the 1944 sale.

Among high selling animals from this section was Seluhm Johanna Fobes, consigned by the Paul Selken farms, selling for $510.00. Purchasers from this vicinity included John F. Blumh of Smithton and J. H. Bagby of Sedalia.

Soft Corn Is Being Fed Stock

Soft corn properly handled and fed to certain classes of livestock compares very favorably with sound corn on a dry-matter basis says J. U. Morris, county agent.

Mr. Morris warns, however, that certain precautions are essential if the corn is to be saved until it can be fed safely. He also warns that there are different degrees of soft corn running the full scale from very immature corn up to that only a little too high in moisture for perfect safety. The precautions necessary and the procedure followed must be based upon the degree of softness of the corn, the amount involved and the facilities for handling.

Soft corn can be fed to hogs and cattle with safety after they become accustomed to the feed, but it is best not to feed soft corn to sheep and horses.

Where the corn is quite soft, or where facilities are available, silage offers one of the safest and surest ways of saving the crop. The whole plant may be ensiled or ear corn silage can be made.

If the corn is in a little more advanced stage of maturity and only a small amount is on hand it can be harvested from the field as it is fed. In case of fair maturity and high moisture the crop can be cut and shocked to permit curing and drying before storage.

If there is a need for carrying over some of the corn it will of necessity need to be cribbed in well ventilated bins which will permit drying. The use of heated air and forced ventilation is an excellent procedure but isn't practiced under average farm conditions. Since there will be considerable soft corn this year, the new crop of soft corn should be fed out first and old corn saved for later feeding wherever this is practicable.

'Got Off Lightly' Capt. Lamy Says

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 15.—(P)—Capt. John A. Lamy, Jr., Sedalia, enroute home after three years as a prisoner of the Japanese, found a happy wife and others waiting for him when he arrived at the Municipal airport here today.

"I got off lightly," the medical officer said of his treatment by the Japanese "I was able to practice for all but three months." He was freed Sept. 16.

Granted a leave because of the illness of his father, John A. Lamy, Sr., of Sedalia, Lamy was greeted at the airport by his wife, whom he married two months before he went overseas, his brother, James Pierre Lamy, and other friends and relatives.

Capt. Lamy arrived in Sedalia Monday evening. A member of the family said he is in good health, and added that "it is wonderful to have him home."

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lamy, 500 South Grand avenue, and his wife is the former Miss Mary Alice Messerly.

The condition of his father, who is quite ill at his home, remains about the same.

James G. Hausam, Jr. On Escort Carrier

ON THE USS CHENANGO—James G. Hausam, Jr., electrician's mate first class, USNR, 910 South Massachusetts avenue, served on this escort aircraft carrier when she carried 1,357 released prisoners of war from Nagasaki, Japan, to a redistribution point at Okinawa.

Some of the evacuees—Americans, English, Australians, Dutch and Japanese—are survivors of Wake Island, the Bataan "Death March" and the sunken USS Houston.

Receives Discharge

Lyle Dean Slusher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Slusher of Warrensburg, formerly of Knob Noster, recently received his army discharge at Jefferson Barracks. He entered service in May of 1942 and spent 38 months in the European theater of war.

Remodels Old Hen House Into Comfortable Quarters

By using considerable old material, Truman Nelson of Cooper county remodeled his old laying house into comfortable and desirable quarters for his hens at a cost of one dollar per bird.

One of the biggest changes is an 8-foot addition on the front, which makes the finished house 22 feet deep and 24 feet long. This depth makes possible satisfactory open-front ventilation. The straw loft provides needed insulation during winter and summer.

The thin-section concrete floor—a "must" in every good poultry house—was put in for a cash cost for material amounting to 5.6 cents per square foot. The floor is raised well above the surrounding ground level so that it will be dry. It's also easy to clean, points out E. B. Winner of the University of Missouri College of Agriculture. Up-to-date equipment cuts down the labor required in caring for the flock. Dropping pits were installed and they greatly aid in sanitation and reduction of labor in cleaning. Built in 5-by-5-foot sections, the cost was $3.50 per section. The 4-foot mesh feeders cost $1.65 each. Nests are provided on the basis of one for each 5 hens. A double tier includes 10 nests and cost $5.35, or about a dime a hen. Water stands and a legume hay feeder also add to the efficiency of this house.

This house now accommodates 135 heavy breed hens. This is about a 60% increase in capacity over the old house. The changes greatly improve the opportunities for poultry profits, points out Mr. Winner.

OLITUARIES

Funeral of Mrs. Dennis

Funeral services for Mrs. Lucy Alice Botts Dennis, who passed away on Thursday, October 11, at Marshall, Mo., where she made her home with her son, W. A. Dennis, were held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at Marshall. Elder Elmer E. Botts, of the Primitive Baptist church, officiating.

Burial was in Marshall cemetery.

Mrs. Botts was born December 1, 1857 ten miles west of Sedalia and was married to John A. Dennis, of near Marshall, February 26, 1890. She was the mother of two sons, W. A., with whom she resided, and John W. Dennis, who died in 1903.

She is survived by one sister, Miss Emma Botts, of Sedalia, and three brothers, W. E., and W. S. Botts, of this city, and W. M. Botts, of Chilhowee, also by several nieces and nephews.

Funeral of G. W. McKelvey

Funeral services for George W. McKelvey, retired Missouri Pacific engineer, who died at 6:30 o'clock Saturday evening at the Missouri Pacific hospital in St. Louis, will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Gillespie funeral home with Rev. Dewey Meranda, pastor of the First Christian church, to officiate.

Mrs. Percy Metcalf and Mrs. George Lovercamp will sing, "In the Garden" and "Rock of Ages," with Mrs. Mae Moser at the organ.

Pallbearers will be S. E. Bush, E. J. Lierman, H. E. French, C. S. Koch of Jefferson City, W. E. Johnson and William Anderson.

Mr. McKelvey was born October 4, 1867 in Ligonier, Pa., the son of Herman and Elizabeth McKelvey. When he reached manhood he went to work on the Pennsylvania railroad, later coming to the Missouri Pacific where he was an employee for fifty years. He retired eight years ago last June.

He was married to Mrs. Estella Cain DeFoe of Higginsville in Sedalia on October 5, 1924, and to this union was born one son, Ralph. The McKelvey family lived for a number of years at 905 West Fifth street and eight years ago moved to 1900 South Summit avenue, where they lived until this past week when they returned to the home at 905 West Fifth street.

Mr. McKelvey was a member of the Granite lodge No. 272 A. F. & A. M., Consistory No. 2, Ararat Temple, A. O. N. M. S., Sedalia Chapter No. 18 and St. Omer Commandery No. 11 of the Knights Templar and Chapter No. 57, Order of the Eastern Star.

He was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers No. 178.

He joined the Presbyterian church when a child.

Surviving are his wife, and son Ralph McKelvey, who is in the navy stationed in Kansas, two stepsons, Capt. Jonathan DeFoe, U. S. army, who is on his way home from the European area and Lt. (sg) Stansel DeFoe, U. S. navy, who has just arrived home from overseas and one brother, Frank McKelvey of Emsworth, Pa.

The body is at the Gillespie funeral home.

Burial will be in Memorial Park cemetery.

Funeral of Willie Ashbrook

Funeral services for Willie Ashbrook, who died at the home of Lawson Hunter, 121 West Twentieth street Friday afternoon, were held at the Ewing funeral home at 10 o'clock Monday morning.

Rev. Ervin Kelley officiated. Mrs. Frances Martin and Mrs. Ervin Kelley sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," "Going Down the Valley" and "Sometime We'll Understand," accompanied by Mrs. Albert Kroenke.

Friends who served as pallbearers were Paul Willard, Eliot Huffman, Robert Wombles, Gene Wombles, Ben Wombles and J. I. Wolf.

Interment was in the Crown Hill cemetery.

Lt. Patten To Go On Inactive Service

First Lieut. Moultrie Patten, 908 West Tenth street, has been placed on terminal leave at the Fort Knox, Ky., separation center. At the end of the leave, he will revert to an inactive status in the Army of the United States.

Pierre Laval Executed By Firing Squad

Dies In Disgrace For Conviction As Traitor Of France

By MEL MOST

PARIS, Oct. 15.—(P)—Pierre Laval was executed as a traitor to France today after failing to cheat the firing squad by swallowing poison.

The man who collaborated with the Germans as chief of government in old Marshal Petain's Vichy regime died from a coup de grace, fired through his ear, when a volley from the firing squad did not kill him.

Doctors restored the swarthy traitor from effects of poison taken four hours earlier. He was led to the courtyard of the bleak old Fresnes prison and died with a cry of "Viva la France" on his lips.

He was refused a final request to give the order for his own death to the execution squad.

Refused Blindfold
Laval refused a proffered blindfold and faced his executioners.

These were his last words: "It is not the soldiers' fault. They know not what they do. Viva la France!"

The twelve riflemen fired. Laval fell only to his knees.

An officer rushed up immediately, aimed his revolver into Laval's ear and fired. The coup de grace dispatched Laval at 12:32 p. m. and he fell dead into the dirt of the courtyard.

The man who before the war had thrice been premier of France and a dozen times a member of her cabinets was condemned by the high court of justice last week—the same court which condemned former Marshal Petain and Joseph Darnard, the head of the Vichy militia.

Petaim's sentence was commuted to life imprisonment and disgrace; Darnard stood before a firing squad only a few days before Laval.

Wounded by Assassin
It was not the first time Laval had felt the steel of a bullet. While leading the Vichy government, he was wounded and almost killed by a youthful assassin. Laval testified during the trial of Marshal Petain that the wounds from that attempt still bothered him.

The trial of Laval was cut short by Laval's own sidown strike against the proceedings, which he termed a "judicial crime." His first statement had been greeted by a burst of jeers and shouts from the presiding judge, prosecutor and jurors. Twice during the first three days, Laval was ejected from the courtroom. His lawyers quit at the start of the trial, but returned only when threatened with disbarment.

After his second ejection from the trial, Laval was confined in a dungeon beneath the courtroom. He wrote some brief notes outlining his defense.

A coffin lay near the spot where Laval had pitched forward in death. The body was placed in it swiftly and loaded into a hearse.

Three official cars bearing the prefect of police, the attorney general and the local police commissioner accompanied the hearse from the gates of the prison.

The little procession went to nearby Thiais cemetery and there Laval's coffin was lowered into the ground, close to the grave of Darnard.

Next to Laval's plot was a grave marked: "Here lies an unknown collaborator."

Grave diggers immediately began covering Laval's coffin with Sue Ernst, near Prairie Home.

dirt. About 25 spectators watched silently.

The grave was left unmarked. It was believed, however, that his family will be given the right to move the body or place a tombstone over it.

Support in Walk to Death
Two men supported him on his last walk to face the firing squad. Doctors worked on Laval with a stomach pump for two hours before the decision was made to proceed with the execution.

The execution of the former Vichy chief of government, whose death was as sensational as his turbulent political career, was formally announced by the ministry of justice.

Laval refused to accept a blindfold and met his end facing the 12-man firing squad, the announcement said. He made no final statement.

Tried to Cheat Firing Squad
Quick action by prison physicians apparently was responsible for the failure of Laval's attempt to cheat the firing squad. The execution originally had been scheduled for 9 a. m. (8 a. m. EST) at Fort Chailion, but officials decided against moving Laval to the fort after his suicide attempt.

Laval made his desperate bid to thwart the fate decreed for him when officials entered his cell at 8 a. m. (2 a. m. EST) to remove him to Fort Chailion. Robert Amor, director of French prisons said Laval was lying on his cot when Prosecutor Andre Morinet and other officials entered.

Allies Indict German War Criminals

power, whose identity is secret, refused to agree. The 3-1 decision, however, was sufficient to carry Jackson's point.

The Berlin ceremony in which the indictment was presented to the court was simple but impressive. It lasted for only an hour, and took place in the ornate chamber of the former Berlin superior court, now the Allied control building.

German Reporters Present

German reporters representing all the German newspapers in Berlin sat at press tables with Allied correspondents. One artist from the German newspaper Der Morgen sketched the proceedings. Not more than 150 persons were able to find seats in the chamber. Among them was a sprinkling of German civilians.

Jackson declared the German general staff had no fixed membership such as the SS or the Gestapo, and did not constitute an entity any more than did a graduating class of the U. S. military academy at West Point.

Will Reach Others

An American spokesman said that other members of the general staff would be "reached" in subsequent trials, and one American viewpoint was that ultimately more than 100 members of the general staff would be tried.

All but one of the 24 defendants are in custody. The lone exception is Martin Bormann, Hitler's former deputy. If he is not apprehended, he will be tried in absentia.

The defendants were given 30 days in which to prepare their defense. They were told that no delay would be countenanced.

To the United States falls the greatest part in presenting the prosecution's case.

Recounts Outrages

The 25,000 word accusation was drawn for presentation to the four-power war crimes court at Berlin. It is an unprecedented document, it sums up in cold legal form Allied fury over Nazi outrages, and it forces the men accused of responsibility to answer for their acts.

The bulk of the indictment is a recital of horrors.

The Nazis and their high command associates are blamed officially for the brutal slaughter of about 10,000,000 helpless persons, civilians and prisoners of war.

About 4,000,000 were slain at Auschwitz concentration camp alone, the indictment says, and another 1,500,000 in notorious Maidanek.

Of 9,600,000 Jews who came under Nazi domination in and out of Germany, the document asserts, 5,700,000 disappeared, "most of them deliberately put to death by Nazi conspirators."

The Nazis and their associates are accused also:

Of torturing civilians to obtain information.

Of putting civilians under "protective arrest" in the "most un-healthy and inhumane conditions."

Of mass murders of defenseless people by gassing and shooting, of incredibly cruel "scientific" experiments on women,

Of drawing the blood of children.

Of shooting hostages, ill-treating and murdering war prisoners and

Of plundering or wiping out by wholesale destruction the cities and towns of lands they occupied.

Murdered and Starved

"American prisoners, officers and men, were murdered in Normandy during the summer of 1944 and in the Ardennes in December, 1944," the official document declares. "American prisoners were starved, beaten and otherwise mistreated in numerous stalags (prison camps), in Germany and in the occupied countries, particularly in 1943, 1944 and 1945."

Today's indictment traces the great Nazi conspiracy from the emergence of Hitler as a political leader in 1921, through his election as chancellor of the German republic in 1933 and his suppression of all opposition in Germany immediately thereafter. The Nazi party is described as "the central core" of the conspiracy.

Three aims are attributed to the Nazis:

1. To destroy the Treaty of Versailles and its restrictions on German military power.

2. To regain German territories lost in World War I and other European territories occupied by "racial Germans" such as the Sudetenland, and

3. To acquire "living space" in Europe and elsewhere.

"The aims and purposes of the Nazi conspirators were not fixed or static," the indictment declared, "but evolved and expanded as they acquired progressively greater power and became able to make more effective application of threats of force and threats of aggressive war."

Thus the Nazis—consolidating their power inside Germany through suppression of liberties, persecutions of Jews and other means—progressed to the point in 1936-39 they took over Austria and Czechoslovakia and invaded Poland, "thus precipitating war with the United Kingdom and France."

It was but a matter of time then until all the Allied world, including the United States, was drawn into the conflict.

Linked To Alliance

American entry as a result of the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor is linked to the German-Japanese-Italian military alliance and the fact that after Japan struck Germany declared war on this country.

The indictment takes up war crimes and crimes against humanity country by country, including the pre-war prosecutions of Christians, Jews and political opponents of the Nazis in Germany itself. It declares:

"The Nazis murdered amongst others Chancellor Dollfuss (of Austria), the Social Democrat (Dr. Rudolf) Dreitscheid and the Communist (Ernest) Thaelmann."

"The Nazis reported on Sept. 14, 1944, that Breitscheid, former editor of the newspaper Der Dozialist, and Thaelmann, German Communist leader, were killed in the Buchenwald concentration camp by Allied bombs. Previously radio Atlantik, German language station operated by the British, said the two were killed Sept. 11, 1944, on orders of Heinrich Himmler."

"They (the Nazis) imprisoned in concentration camps numerous political and religious personages, for example Chancellor Schuschnigg (of Austria) and Pastor Niemoller of Germany."

"Along with adults," the indictment says, "the Nazi conspirators mercilessly destroyed even children. They killed them with their parents in groups and alone. They killed them in children's homes and hospitals, burying the living in the graves, throwing them into flames, stabbing them with bayonets, poisoning them, conducting experiments upon them, extracting their blood for the use of the German army, throwing them into prison and Gestapo torture chambers and concentration camps where the children died from hunger, torture and epidemic diseases."

Says Truman Has Evaded Strike Issue

will take up with his cabinet tomorrow the problem of setting the nation's course on wage and price policy.

The present policy of the administration he told his news conference was reflected in speeches by Reconversion Director John W. Snyder in the past two days. Snyder urged increasing wages but holding the line on prices.

Even as Mr. Truman told newsmen he was very happy that John L. Lewis had called off the strikes of 216,000 United Mine Workers, 54 of the 1,031 strike bound soft coal mines were already resuming operations. Lewis set next Monday as back-to-work day.

Child Fatally Injured by Car

Virginia Gayle Beckett, 7-year-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Beckett, of Boonville, was fatally injured Wednesday morning on her way to school.

The Beckett family has many friends in Sedalia and have often visited here in the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Withers, 1819 East Broadway.

Chief Layton Miller of Boonville said that he understands that the driver of the car, Ernest Habaggar of California, Mo., was going north on Main street in Boonville and that the little girl broke loose from the school parlor, W. W. Hanna, and ran out into the street, colliding with the car. Habaggar said he was driving about 15 to 18 miles an hour.

Gayle was born August 14, 1938.

Surviving are her parents, one brother, Teddy, and one sister, Barbara, her maternal grandmother, Mrs. C. C. Watson of Kansas City and her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Beckett of Salisbury.

Funeral services will be held in the Nelson Memorial Methodist church this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Boonville. Rev. F. R. Chapman will officiate.

Burial will be in Walnut Grove cemetery there.

Mrs. Withers and Mrs. William Starke, 1617 East Ninth street, will go to Boonville to attend the funeral.

Pass Bill Fixing Judges Salaries

JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 18.—(P)—The Senate passed and sent to the House today a bill to fix the salaries of Missouri Probate Judges in the larger counties at $3,600 to $10,000 a year.

The vote was 18-0, barely enough for passage. Sen. Michael Kinney (D) of St. Louis said he had intended to oppose the measure because it imposed drastic cuts on St. Louis and Kansas City probate judges but in view of the slim attendance he would support it.

The measure affects only counties with 30,000 or more population. A bill establishing salaries in smaller counties is still hung up in committee.

Passed by the same narrow margin before the Senate quit for the week-end was a bill setting the schedule of fees for probate judges, leaving them virtually the same as at present. Judges formerly were paid on a fee basis but under the new state constitution will shift to salaries.

Peron to New Peak of Power In Argentina

Upheaval Kept Him for Nine Days in Eclipse

By LAURANCE F. STUNTZ

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 18.—(P)—Col. Juan Domingo Peron rode the crest of a new wave of power in stormy Argentina today as another swift political upheaval collapsed the forces which kept him in eclipse for nine days.

The strong man of the military government forced the formation of a cabinet of his supporters and friends, and hailed a general strike called in his behalf as celebrating "a day of glory for the workers."

President Edelmiro Farrell tossed aside a "cabinet of notables" submitted by Juan Alvarez as attorney general, threw out Alvarez himself, reinstated several members of his deposed cabinet, ousted Adm. Hector Vernengo Lima, a leader of the Oct. 9 movement against Peron, as navy minister, and before a vast crowd hailed Peron as "a man who knows how to win your hearts."

The newspaper La Prensa said that shortly before midnight the gunboats Independencia and Rosario and the minesweeper Drummond of the Argentine navy left the capital's port. It printed an unconfirmed report that Vernengo Lima and other high navy chiefs were aboard the Drummond.

Mystery as to Avalos

Still a mystery was the status of Gen. Eduardo Avalos, who led the Campo de Mayo garrison movement which had forced Peron's resignation as vice president, war minister and labor minister. Avalos had taken the post of war minister and Farrell's announcement listed no successor thus far.

In response to the general strike call issued by Peron's friends in the General Confederation of Labor, all trains out of Buenos Aires stopped running at one minute past midnight.

But not all unions supported the strike. The Buenos Aires labor council, which includes representatives of all unions in the capital, said the strike was "imposed by Nazi elements in the labor ministry who, pistol in hand, are trying to paralyze the country to aid Col. Peron."

Two Persons Died

Two persons died and six were injured in a crowd which attacked the offices of the newspaper Critica, outspoken critic of Peron and Farrell, last night. Some employees of the newspaper said bombs and machine guns were used in the attack. The building was fired, but employees extinguished the flames. The office of the newspaper La Prensa also was attacked.

At the height of this violence, a government communique said the demonstrations which had flared throughout the day had "dissolved themselves in perfect order" and that both the city and the rest of the country were perfectly calm.

Peron, ousted by leaders of the Campo de Mayo garrison Oct. 9, and for a time held in custody, told the hysterically cheering crowds massed in the Plaza de Mayo that he would take a brief vacation in a southern province and then return to the capital to "fight shoulder to shoulder with the workers until I am exhausted."

It was Peron's possible candidacy for the presidency in next April's elections which kept Argentina in a state of ferment for months.

Peron said he would resign from the army, remaining a colonel under a law permitting officers to retain rank and uniform on retirement. His resignation possibly paved the way for his candidacy.

Jack McCloskey Out Of Service

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCloskey of St. Louis are spending several days here visiting his mother, Mrs. C. F. McCloskey, 505 West Seventh street, and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Coxon, and family, 507 West Seventh street.

Mr. McCloskey was honorably discharged from service under the point system at Baer Field, Ft. Wayne, Ind., October 9. He served 26 months in the European theater of war, and returned to the States in August with the 435th Troop Carrier Command group.

He will resume his position in the legal claims department of the Travelers Insurance company, St. Louis branch. After November 1 Mr. and Mrs. McCloskey will be at home at 6239-A Eichelberger, St. Louis Hills.

Appears as Court Takes Up 'Legally Dead' Case

ELIZABETH N. Y., Oct. 18.—(P)—Philip J. Reiss of Plainfield, attended yesterday a court hearing on his application to have his wife declared legally dead. He said she had disappeared in October, 1935.

Reiss' attorney asked for a dismissal of the petition when Mrs. Reiss walked into the courtroom and explained that she did not know her husband was looking for her until she read a newspaper notice of the application.

Wage-Price Situation to Be Discussed

Speculation on Effect of Ending Miners' Strike

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—(P)—President Truman said today he was very happy John L. Lewis called off the coal strikes and disclosed that he expects soon to make a statement on wage and price policies.

Mr. Truman noted at a news conference that Lewis, leader of the United Mine Workers, ended the strikes as a matter of public interest. Then, he observed that there would be very little trouble if everybody acted in the same interest.

Tomorrow, the president said, he expects to discuss the wage-price situation with the cabinet. He may have an announcement afterwards on policy.

Mr. Truman mentioned the forthcoming statement in replying to a question as to whether he had suggested to war labor board members recently the creation of a new agency to formulate wage-price policies.

For Holding Prices Line

A series of speeches on wages and prices by reversion director John W. Snyder, Mr. Truman said, set forth already proclaimed administration views. Snyder indicated the government favors holding the line on living costs while permitting some rise in wages.

Asked if he favored repeal of the Smith-Connally labor act, the president replied it was a matter for congress. However, he said, when it comes up in congress he will have an opinion to express on it.

While there was speculation over Lewis' motives in ending the mine stoppages, the government displayed frank relief over the turn of events.

Labor, reversion and solid fuels officials hopefully assumed that the 216,000 striking bituminous coal miners would return to work next Monday as directed by the United Mine Workers' president.

Started September 21

The strikes, which started September 21 and spread to six states, had threatened to bring reversion to a grinding halt. The threat to steel—and thence to autos and a score of basic industries — had been multiplying daily with the loss of more than a million tons with each complete or cycle.

There was little inclination on the part of the government to look behind Lewis' surprise halt order. A UMW spokesman said the action "obviously" was taken "in the public interest."

Considerable speculation existed elsewhere, however.

Most labor sources expected that Lewis would renew his demand on the operators for unionization of the supervisory, clerical and technical employees — the issue in the strikes — when he reopens the contract next March 31.

Prepare Tax Cut Of $2,085,000,000

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—(P)—The senate finance committee voted today to cut individual income taxes $2,085,000,000 a year and remove an estimated 12,000,000 low-income persons from the tax rolls.

The senators also agreed to repeal the excess profits tax on corporations next January 1, accounting for another slash of $2,555,000,000 in revenue.

Thus, before acting on proposed excise tax reductions and other odds and ends, the committee in a two-hour session reduced the prospective federal income by a total of $4,640,000,000.

With further action due later in the day, the senate group had made several significant changes in the pattern of the tax cutting legislation approved by the house last week.

The house voted to reduce the effective rate of the excess profits tax from 85.5 per cent to 60 per cent next year but not to repeal it until 1947.

The senators voted to retain the 3 per cent "normal" tax on individual incomes, but to apply the same exemptions to the normal tax as govern the surtax—$500 for the taxpayer and each dependent in place of a flat $500 per taxpayer. This was the same as provided in the house bill.

But where the house voted to reduce the surtax rate in each of its graduated brackets by 4 per cent points, the senate group held the reduction to 3 points. The senators also knocked out a house stipulation that each taxpayer must get a net reduction of at least 10 per cent in his tax.

No Action in Medical School Battle

JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 18.—(P)—The senate education committee heard another round last night in the medical school battle which started last spring but took no action.

Proponents of a plan to establish a four-year medical course at the University of Missouri with the final two clinical years in Kansas City, had the floor last night. Later the committee will hear opposition to the bill already approved by the house.

Fortunes In Gold and Diamonds

Found in Thermos Bottles Where Hidden by the Nipponese

TOKYO, Oct. 18.—(P)—Fabulous fortunes in gold and diamonds occupied the attention today of American forces in Japan where thousands of Nipponese face a dire winter of hunger.

More than $30,000,000 worth of dazzling diamonds—largely government owned and many obtained through deceit of the Japanese people—were discovered today in cheap, quart thermos bottles in a safety deposit box.

While investigators uncovered the rich find, millions of dollars worth of gold and silver bullion began moving in two and one-half U. S. army trucks under armed escort from the bomb-battered government mint to the Bank of Japan.

Allied officers found 103 tons of silver bars, which they valued at about $2,000,000, stacked carefully in a farmer's barn near Kasugai, 85 miles from Tokyo. The farmer, Kashiro Haibara, said the silver was sent to him from Tokyo to save it from loss during American bombings.

Another $1,000,000 worth of silver was found a few days previously, cached in an underground room near a machine shop at Haratsuka, about 100 miles from Tokyo.

Toyohiko Kagawa, Japanese christian leader, urged General MacArthur to divert part of the more than $250,000,000 in government valuables already seized to import food.

Kagawa said if part of the treasure could be used to pay for the importing of rice, salt, raw cotton and other scarce commodities, I believe this could prove to be the greatest thing for the happiness of the Japanese people."

Addressing MacArthur through a letter to the newspaper Mainichi, Kagawa added:

"It goes without saying that the Japanese people will endeavor their best to faithfully carry out reparations but the suffering of war victims actually is greater than one imagines."

The fortune in diamonds, totaling 131,000 karats in weight, was found in the Mitsui Trust company vaults, deposited in the name of a Japanese government import and export control agency.

Contributed By Civilians

Many of the diamonds had been contributed by civilians who were told they were needed for industrial usage. Obviously the greater part of the diamonds never was used for that purpose. Possibly the gems were intended for use as trading material with Germany and other nations had the war continued.

Some of the gems probably were obtained abroad, as the same type of campaign for them was conducted by the Japanese overseas. The same government control agency also has 33,000 karats of diamonds in vaults at Osaka, considerable gold and nearly 250 pounds of platinum in various parts of Tokyo.

The discovery came shortly after another fortune in diamonds, belonging to Japanese admirals, was found in a package hidden in a chicken coop atop a mountain 160 miles north of Tokyo.

The movement of the gold from the mint is part of a plan to gather all government precious metals in Bank of Japan vaults in Tokyo and Osaka, pending instructions from Washington as to the disposition.

Soldiers of the First (dismounted) Cavalry division looked on as Japanese crews lugged the gold to the trucks.

Goose Free In Shooting Case

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Oct. 18.—(P)—Pretty Imogene Stevens, central figure in a sensational New Canaan shooting, went free today when Prosecutor Lorin W. Willis told the superior court he could not prove that her killing of Albert Kovacs, 19-year-old Norwalk sailor, made her guilty of manslaughter.

"All the evidence," said Willis, tended to support the contention of the 24-year-old wife of Major G. Ralsey Stevens III that she shot the youth in self defense.

Judge Ernest A. Inglis, commending Willis for "performing his duty," entered a nolle (dismissal) to the manslaughter charge on which Mrs. Stevens had been held since June 23.

The attractive defendant was at liberty in $15,000 bail and far from the scene when the case, the expected trial of which had been awaited with great interest, was thus quickly disposed of. Her lawyer said he telegraphed the news to her at Columbus, Ga., where her husband, a paratrooper, is stationed.

Willis informed the court that of the "conflicting statements" made about the case, the state would have to accept that of Mrs. Stevens, daughter of a former Pampa, Tex., policeman who married Major Stevens, her second husband, in Oklahoma two years ago shortly before he went overseas.

She said she encountered Kovacs and his brother, James, in the Milton home late at night, thought they were intruders, ordered them to leave and shot the sailor when he resisted her. She didn't know that the brothers were calling on Faith Coombs, a girl engaged by the Milton to stay with their children during their absence.

PARAGRAPHS OF INTEREST About Pettis County's Historical Society and MUSEUM

Pa Pettis said to Ma: "This statement of a newspaper network, 'The comics section is read more regularly by more people than any other form of literature, sacred or profane, classic or contemporary,' struck me with the difference that has come over the reading habits of our nation. It used to be that even the most modest home had at least a bookcase full of books, many of them bound handsomely in leather. Now there are homes of people who boast that they are great readers in which there is not to be found a single book, even a paper bound one—only a magazine rack full of movie, detective, confession, and comic 'pulp.' And the books people used to take pride in owning were on serious subjects. Another one of those rare old books which Miss Stella Crandall loaned to the Museum illustrates this. It is a large book which evidently saw much use, because the pages are well-thumbed and it has been rebound in sheepskin. It was written in Spanish by a famous pulpit orator, Louis of Granada (1504-1589). Its title is 'Memorial of the Christian Life' and treats at great length of the Cardinal Virtues, the Seventh Sacraments, and the Life of Christ. This book, which was first published in 1566, proved so popular that almost a hundred years later, in 1637, another edition of it was gotten out and dedicated to Philip IV, who at that time the dedication says was 'King of Spain and of the Indies, Monarch of the World.' Another book by this same author called 'A Guide to Sinners' was so popular that for the next 300 years it was translated into every European language, and in 1889 an English translation of it was made in New York. This book in the Crandall collection is of the 1657 edition. The range and the seriousness of the reading habits of those days is indicated by the long list of books recommended by the Madrid publisher. The books are listed under the headings: Scholastic and Moral Theology, Devotion, Sermons, Law, History, Grammar and Literature. Books for entertainment are listed last with Miscellaneous."

Ma Pettis said: "You are right, Pa, about every home having a book case. Don't you remember we used to have one which camouflaged a folding bed—a spare bed for our many over-night visitors? In the olden days books and spare beds were among the pleasing necessities of life."

Goods May be Marked 'OPA'

Effective October 15, any retailer of commodities other than food will be permitted to mark or tag goods with the words "OPA Price" instead of "Ceiling Price" wherever individual marking of tagging is required by an OPA price regulation. The price may be shown in this way on the commodity itself, its container or wrapper, depending on the provisions of the particular regulation. Retailers may use the words "OPA Price" for goods priced exactly at the ceiling, or below the ceiling.

As a result, the wording on price tags will be more uniform from store to store, OPA said. In addition, retailers will be relieved of the burden of marking many articles with two statements of price, one to show the OPA ceiling and the other to show the store's actual selling price. Of course, retailers who wish to continue using the words "Ceiling Price" may do so.

Any retailer who decides to mark goods with the words "OPA Price" must put up a sign in type at least one inch high, in the premises where the articles are offered for sale and clearly visible to shoppers. The sign will read: "The 'OPA Price' marked or tagged on merchandise in this store is no higher than the OPA ceiling price of the articles."

The two boys took their examinations together, left Sedalia together for Fort Knox, Ky., stayed together the entire time of training, came home on furlough together left together for Maryland at the end of their furloughs, went overseas to England on the same boat and were separated after they got over there, although they were both in Patton's Third Army. They were both promoted to private first class about the same time.

They were separated for some time but now they are closer together. They are stationed less than fifty miles apart so recently Pfc. Kubli went over to see Pfc. Snaveley and they had a real visit.

In Pacific

Coast Guardsman Harold DeJarnette, bearded boatswain's mate second class, of 1203 South Lamine avenue, Sedalia, Missouri, has seen plenty of action aboard a Coast Guard manned Army vessel operating in the Philippine sea frontier. Prior to this assignment he served aboard a Coast Guard manned invasion supply ship on which he earned the right to the Philippine liberation ribbon and bronze star. Harold is a 1942 graduate of Smith-Cotton high school, son of Mrs. Myrtle DeJarnette. He was awarded the Navy and Marine corps medal for heroism. He is believed now to be on his way home.

Lt. Paul Bliss Back in States

With the return of the 43rd Infantry "Winged Victory" Division to the United States, 1st Lt. Paul F. Bliss, husband of Mrs. Mildred A. Bliss, 634 E. 5th St., Sedalia, Mo., is once more setting foot on American soil.

The 43rd Infantry (Winged Victory) division commanded by Major General Leonard F. Wing, Rutland Vt., came overseas in October 1942. Of all the Divisions in the United States Armed Forces, the 43rd alone traversed the whole length of the "Victory Road". In October 1942, the Division went to New Zealand, much to the relief of the New Zealanders because a Jap thrust toward the Island group was expected. From there, the 43rd went all the way to Tokyo, fighting and defeating the Japs in the Northern Solomons, New Guinea and in the Philippines.

Lt. Bliss was on the U. S. A. T. Coolidge when it sank in the New Hebrides, and also saw action in New Georgia, New Guinea and was attached to the Navy, flying from the "U. S. S. Wake Island", as an airborne observer during the Luzon Invasion, and he was awarded the Purple Heart for wounds received in action during the Luzon Campaign.

"Anything I can say is scant consolation to you in your grief. It is my fervent hope that later, the knowledge that his courage and sacrifices contributed to the final victory may be of sustaining comfort to you.

Enlisted in 1940
Corporal Neiberger entered service in the Air Corps on December 16, 1940, at Jefferson Barracks and was later transferred to Hamilton Field, Calif. He went overseas the last of October, 1941. He was reported missing in August 1942.

Cpl. Neiberger was half way between Pearl Harbor and Manila when the attack was made on Pearl Harbor. He went to Manila, then to Cebu and was later sent back to Manila. He was at Nichols Field, Corregidor, when taken prisoner.

MacArthur Writes Letter Of Sympathy

Tells Sedalians Their Son Was Gallant Comrade

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Neiberger, 1515 East Fifth street, have received a letter of sympathy for the death of their son, Cpl. Victor Neiberger, who died while a prisoner of the Japanese in the Philippines on May 29, 1942.

The letter follows:
"APO 500
"20 September 1945

"Dear Mr. Neiberger:

My deepest sympathy goes to you in the death of your son, Corporal Victor D. Neiberger, while a prisoner of war of the enemy.

"You may have some consolation in the memory that he, along with his comrades-in-arms who died on Bataan and Corregidor and in prison camps, gave his life for his country. It was largely their magnificent courage and sacrifices which stopped the enemy in the Philippines and gave us the time to arm ourselves for our return to the Philippines and the final defeat of Japan. Their names will be enshrined in our country's glory forever.
